CHRISTIE DRAWS LESSON FROM POPULAR TOPIC, PREPAREDNESS

Head of Purdue Extension Department Says Food is Biggest Factor in World War

FARMERS RESPONSIBILITY

Urges Farms be Made Attractive as Means of Keeping Boys And Solving Labor Problem

BANQUET AT GRAHAM ANNEX

Country Life Topics Are Discussed Intelligently And Interestingly by Speakers

Preparedness is uppermost in the minds of the people of the United States, with congress discussing it, so it was this timely topic that George I. Christie, head of the extension department of Purdue university, chose for his address at the farmers banquet Wednesday night, at the Graham Annex building gymnasium, which was the closing and crowning feature of the farmers short course.

One hundred and twenty-five persons sat down to the heavily laden tables. The banquet was served by the girls of the domestic science classes, in charge of Miss Kate Dennis, and went off as smoothly as if a professional caterer were on the job. Unstinted praise was given the very thing that was being discussed at the banquet.

Country life topics were discussed intelligently and interestingly by the speakers who responded to toasts. Half of the men at the banquet tables were farmers. Samuel L. Trabue, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided as the toastmaster, introducing each speaker with appropriate words.

"Preparedness is more important than in the days of George Washington," said Mr. Christie. "We know that we do not have enough men and officers to go up against the armies of the other countries—and we hope and pray that we shall never have to face them—but the call that is coming from the great chief of this nation is not that your son shall go into battle, but that he shall be prepared."

"The factor of food is playing a greater part in the conflict than any other—it is greater than men and arms. England has only two weeks' supply of food, and if a blanket could be thrown about her to cut off her imports, her people would starve. The problem that is staring Germany in the face is how her people are going to get three meals a day."

"The problem, then, in our country, is how the working men are going to get three meals a day at prices they can pay. Our population doubles every twenty-five years and as consumption increases, we are wanting to know whether we can

Congratulations To—

Phil Wilk, Rushville's widely known road constructor. Mr. Wilk is 57 years old today. Mr. Wilk is a native of Scott county, but has lived here for many years. The firm of Wilk and Company is known all over the state. Many of the roads in this country have been constructed by this firm. Mr. Wilk is a successful business man and in addition to building roads is interested in a commercial lime-stone plant at Milroy and a large gravel pit in Fayette county.

MUSIC PLEASING FEATURE

The music at the farmers banquet was a pleasing feature. The program was given from the west side of the running track above the gymnasium floor. There were violin solos by Miss Gladys Tittsworth and Miss Janet Dean, a vocal solo by Miss Helen Scott, a cornet solo by Harry Lucas and a vocal duet by Miss Esther Anderson and Miss Mary Louise Poe. The efforts of the entertainers were loudly applauded.

The instructors at the short course all of whom were special guests at the banquet, praised warmly the entertainment they had received here. They said they had nearly always enjoyed social functions wherever they went, but none equaled what Rushville's hospitality offered.

The committee responsible for the banquet—John A. Tittsworth, E. R. Casady and G. P. Hunt—worked under great difficulties because tables, stoves and dishes had to be provided. E. J. Knecht and H. S. Havens worked hard selling tickets for the banquet.

produce enough to feed our people."

Professor Christie quoted export figures to show that this country is gradually consuming more and more of its crops, until the point has been reached where consumption is very little smaller than production in all crops excepting wheat. Taking into consideration all factors, he said he was inclined to believe this country is not increasing as fast as its consumption, which makes this problem one of the present and not the future.

"So agriculture is a barometer of the progress and prosperity of the people," he continued. "It is possible to increase our agricultural land only nine percent and the only hope we have left is to get it from the soil we have. We are all inclined to believe that this cry of back to the land is a 1916 slogan, but men of the days before Christ realized

CHRISTIE PRAISES SCHOOL BUILDING

Says Rushville Has in The Graham Annex Something Better Than Any Y. M. C. A.

VALUE AS SOCIAL CENTER

George I. Christie, head of the extension department of Purdue university, complimented Rushville on its new school building at the beginning of his address at the farmers banquet at the Graham Annex last night.

"I don't know of any better building in Indiana," said Mr. Christie. "I do not know of anything that promises more for the benefit of the young people and as a social center for the community than does this beautiful and well appointed building."

"In our towns and in other towns as well, we have gone down into our pockets and dug up as much as $75,000 to build a Y. M. C. A. building. That was done in Lafayette, Crawfordsville and a number of other places. When you have in this building all things combined as they are—a fine gymnasium, a place for banquets, a fine auditorium and moving picture machine, you have something better than a Y. M. C. A."

SHOULD USE MORE SEED TO CUT OFF GERMAN EXPORT

Farmers Attention Called to Low Germination of 1914 Clover

Attention of farmers is called to the low germination of the 1914 clover seed crop and those in touch with the situation say that seed must be put on much thicker than usual if farmers want a stand this year. Prof. Harry Mahin of the Arlington schools recently conducted a test for germination. Children gathered samples of re-cleaned seed for the work. The highest germination shown was 86 and the lowest 44, making an average of 44 for all samples.

COUNTY LOWEST IN DELINQUENCY

Of 46 Counties on Which Reports Have Been Received, Rush Has Fewer Delinquent Taxes

MOST OF IT FROM THE CITY

The amount of delinquent taxes in Rush county advertised by the county auditor totals only $464.83. It is gleaned from the reports of forty-six counties received here Rush county is the lowest. Probably two-thirds of the delinquency is from the City of Rushville. The amount would have been very small but for the delinquent sewer and sidewalk assessments submitted to the county treasurer by the city treasurer.

Exactly twelve pieces of property are advertised for sale to satisfy the taxes. The largest single item is $135.25. This is the taxes on a piece of property in Rushville for a public improvement. The delinquent tax sale will be held on Monday, February 14.

GAS IS WASTED IN LEAKING MAINS

State Gas Inspector, After Visit Here, Says he Will Enforce Law in This Respect

BAD LEAK IN STORM SEWER

Rushville and Rush county sustains a heavy loss every day because of faulty gas mains and the piping at the gas wells, according to Floyd Wright, state gas inspector. The state gas inspector was here yesterday in conference with John Wallace, deputy inspector, and an examination of several natural gas mains revealed many bad leaks.

It is against the state law to permit gas leaks. A bad leak was found in the old storm sewer running parallel with the Pennsylvania railroad in the northern part of the city. The lines of three gas companies pass through this sewer, and according to Mr. Wright, all of the companies will be notified to find the leak. The law regarding gas leaks applies to private lines and private wells as well as the corporations. Prosecutions are sure to follow if the leaks are not stopped, it is stated. The intention of the law is to conserve the gas. Mr. Wright stated that the supply here is being greatly diminished through carelessness in not attending to the leaky mains.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Allen have moved into a suite of rooms in the home of Mrs. Libbie Hackleman in North Harrison street.

TO CUT OFF GERMAN EXPORT

Holland Decree Forbids Future Exportation of Rubber

(By United Press.)
The Hague, Jan. 27.—A royal decree was issued today forbidding the future exportation of rubber. Its aim was to cut off exports to Germany. Great Britain will reciprocate by ordering no further interferences with shipments of rubber to Holland. In the past rubber cargoes have been held up until it was proved conclusively that they were not consigned to German agents in Holland.

SHORT COURSE WILL NOT PAY EXPENSES

Although Bills Are Not in, Those in Charge Say Receipts of $96.25 Will Not Meet Them

ATTENDANCE BELOW AVERAGE

The gross receipts of the farmers short course, which closed Wednesday afternoon, amounted to $96.25. Although the bills are not all in, those in charge are confident that the short course did not pay its way. All bills will be paid by the Chamber of Commerce, and whatever the deficiency is will be met by the Chamber.

The season tickets sold numbered 162 and single admissions amounted to $14.25. The heaviest expense was the board and lodging of the eight instructors here from Purdue. The other expenses consisted of rental for rooms, feeding the live stock and equipment for the various departments. The railroads furnish the instructors passes and a car for the live stocks free of charge.

The attendance was not up to the standard here. Many believe the bad condition of the roads was responsible for many not attending.

BOY BANDITS GET AWAY WITH $12,000

Enter Chicago Bank in Broad Daylight And Escape With Cash in Presence of 30 People

DISAPPEAR IN AUTOMOBILE

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Jan. 27.—Four boy bandits today stuck up the cashier and 30 other persons, including Jake Stahl, former baseball star, in the Washington Park national bank and escaped with between $12,000 and $13,000 in cash.

Stahl is vice-president of the bank. The bandits, none of whom appeared to be over twenty years of age, drove up to the bank in a small automobile shortly before nine o'clock.

They warned the six or seven customers outside the railing to stand back, forced all the employees to hold up their hands and directed the paying teller and cashier to open the safe.

SEEK TO CHANGE ROUTE OF ROAD

W. A. Alexander And Eleven Others' Effort to Relocate Highway is Contested in Court

ONCE UP TO COMMISSIONERS

Plaintiffs Allege Damages Assessed in Lower Court Were Not Equal to Advantages Gained

The highway case of William A. Alexander, et al., against William E. Harton, et al., started today in the circuit court before Special Judge Fred Gause of Newcastle and a jury. The start of the case attracted a large crowd to the court house. It has been several years since a case of this kind created as much interest.

The plaintiffs in the action, Alexander and eleven other petitioners are seeking to vacate and re-locate a portion of the road commonly known as the "Greenfield road." Under the proposed change the road would be opened through the Alexander farm on the north line and the Harton farm on the south line. The change in the road would make it run east and west instead of as located at present.

W. A. Alexander was the first witness. The first part of his testimony was regarding the record of the case as started in the commissioners' court. He testified as to the posting of notices and other things as record evidence. About one hundred witnesses are called in this case and the neighborhood affected by the proposed change in the road is about evenly divided on the proposed change. Under the proposed change Alexander would receive about an acre and one-half of land included in that portion of the road now in use.

The petition for the change in the road was filed by Alexander in 1913 and was signed by twelve men, as provided by law. Included in the list of signers were the names of Lieu Oneal, James Shanahan, Thomas A. Jones, Herschel Daubenspeck, Homer Powell, E. O. Humes, L. B. Miller, John D. Hiner, Homer Gatewood and George W. Looney, Jr.

Before the petition was heard a remonstrance was filed, headed by William Harton. The remonstrators asked for some damages because they maintained that the benefits from the proposed opening of the road would not equal the damages. The commissioners awarded some damages and ordered the road built. The petitioners were not satisfied to pay the damages and took an appeal. The case as it is now being tried is really a hearing once more on whether the road should be changed.

The petitioners maintain that the road changed would be shortened and would be a public utility. The controversy over the proposed change in the highway has been hanging fire in the circuit court for over two years. The remonstrators allege that the old road is good enough and that it has been established for at least thirty years. The change in the road would cost about $4,000. The remonstrators desire that the present road be improved under the three-mile road law and that no change in the route be made.

The testimony will deal for the most part with the travel on the highway and the benefits and damages to the parties involved if the change is made. Before the case is completed the jury will be taken to the scene of the proposed change in the highway. This request was granted by the court.

Considerable difficulty was had in

ARRESTED FOR CROSSING RIVER

Three U. S. Lieutenants Are Held by Authorities For Leading Their Men Into Mexico

FOUR SOLDIERS DROWNED

Go Down in Rio Grande When Pelted With Bullets by Mexicans Meeting Onrush of Troopers

(By United Press.)
Brownsville, Texas, Jan. 27.—Lieutenant J. E. Mort, commanding battery D, Fourth field artillery, and Lieutenants Payton and Waldron, of the same detachment, were placed under arrest in Progreso, Texas, today, charged with leading fourteen of their men into Mexico to rescue two American soldiers who were captured by Mexicans.

They were arrested on orders of Major General Funston who reiterated that he had issued specific orders that no soldier should cross into Mexico under any circumstances.

Four of Mort's men were drowned while swimming the Rio Grande under a cross fire from Mexican and American troops. The Mexicans were not in uniform.

CONFIRMED IN CAPITAL

(By United Press.)
Washington, Jan. 27.—The war department today received a dispatch from General Funston on the border confirming the report that two American soldiers were captured by armed Mexicans and four others drowned in the Rio Grande when they were fired upon while swimming and that three officers were arrested for leading their men into Mexico.

Press reports, officials here said, gave no occasion for undue excitement, though it was thought possible it might provoke another outbreak in congress.

LOOK FOR RUNAWAY BOYS

Police Notified Two Morristown Youths Are Coming Here

The police received word this afternoon to be on the lookout for two boys, Ora Catt and Arthur Wagoner, missing from Morristown. The boys were last seen this morning when they started for school. They did not arrive at school and when they did not come home at noon their parents became alarmed and started to investigate. Word from Morristown stated that there was reason to believe that they came to this city. No reason was given for their leaving home. Chief Rosencrance was looking for the boys at a late hour today.

Ring Out the Old Ring in the New

The luxuries of yesterday are the necessities of to-day. Our wants increase as we grow—as our tastes grow finer. We must keep abreast of the times—if possible ahead of them. We must know. And if we are to be informed we must read—and above all else we must read the advertising.

It is the harbinger of progress. The voice of the "new" that comes with the news in your favorite daily newspaper.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it, before breakfast.

To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean, almost every morning, to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furred tongue, nasty breath or stomach becomes rancid, it's your liver. Sallow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes all denote liver uncleanness. Your liver is the most important, also the most abused, and neglected organ of the body. Few know its function or how to release the dammed-up body waste, bile and toxins. Most folks resort to violent calomel, which is a dangerous, salivating chemical which can only be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues, also attacks the bones.

Every man and woman, sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, to wash from the liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, the poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel, because it can not salivate, for it is harmless and you can eat anything afterwards. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, and any pharmacist will sell you a quarter pound, which is sufficient for a demonstration of how hot water and limestone phosphate cleans, stimulates and freshens the liver, keeping you feeling fit day in and day out.

Many in Rushville Try Simple Remedy

Many Rushville people are surprised at the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE TEASPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing. F. E. Wolcott, druggist

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulator, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podoophyllin, they call it) daily. Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Santanel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Santanel Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

Another Scheme

Despite the fact that the exchange rates show a heavy depreciation in the value of the German mark and the Austrian crown, Secretary McAdoo and Director of the Mint Wooley, whose function it is under the law to proclaim foreign values every quarter, refuse to take official notice of these falling values. It is a matter of common knowledge that the coins referred to have depreciated in value, but Secretary McAdoo denies that any depreciation exists. The reason is simple. The Treasury is in a horrible state, and Secretary McAdoo is engaging in every trickery known to a politician to raise the greatest amount of revenue possible, regardless of fair play. Importers of German and Austrian goods have repeatedly called attention of the Treasury Department to the depreciated condition of currency of the Central Powers, as evidenced by the decline in the exchange rates, but they are still subjected to the hardships accompanying the liquidation of duties based on the normal exchange values. Having inflated the treasury balance, Mr. McAdoo finds it an easy matter to inflate exchange rates.

Why even speak of Mexico, when speaking appears to be all that has the courage to do?

WILL TALK OVER REVENUE PLANS

House Democratic Leaders Have Four Methods in View For Increasing U. S. Funds

TARIFF COMMISSION ONE

Democratic Majority Will Caucus on These Measures Before Presented by Committee

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 27.—Steps toward consideration of revenue legislation were taken today by Democratic leaders of the house. A meeting of the ways and means committee Democrats next week was called. They will make a preliminary survey of the revenue field. Prominent members declared this first meeting will consider four revenue subjects as follows:

Revision of the income tax.

Inheritance tax plans.

Taxation of war munitions.

Creation of a tariff commission.

This meeting will begin work on the chief revenue problems of the session. That the house majority will caucus on all revenue matters, including a tariff commission bill, before presented by the ways and means committee or reported to the house, was stated today by Leader Kitchen.

ATTRACTS NOTICE AS SMALL FARMER

Twenty-Acre Track of Land Produces Valuable Crop For Nebraska Man—Gets Prizes

IS NATIVE OF SWITZERLAND

(By United Press.)

Table Rock, Neb., Jan. 27.—Arnold Martin, a former Swiss farmer who resides near here, has attracted international attention as a twenty-acre farmer. Recently at Denver he won prizes in every class, but the thing about which Mr. Martin is most pleased and proud is that corn he raised was selected by the Chinese commissioner at the Panama Pacific exposition to be sent to China, where, under the supervision of the Chinese government experts, the seed is to be propagated, acclimated and adopted.

There are few small farms in this locality, many of them running 160 and even 640 acres. Mr. Martin received his training as a small acreage farmer in Switzerland, and he finds no difficulty in making twenty acres pay and pay well, besides getting prize taking crops.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading; gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft-brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Tom Hendricks

THE country newspaper has been a prolific breeding place for statesmen, politicians (there's a fine distinction between the two), poets, philosophers and humorists. Many of the leading platform men of today have come up through the medium of paste pot, scissors and pencil. Of these Tom Hendricks is a conspicuous example.

Some call him a humorist. A vein of homely humor runs through all he says. His original way of phrasing jars a laugh out of his audience here and there, and once in awhile the roof is raised. Yet he is essentially serious in all he says and in his way of saying it.

Some call him a philosopher. A rugged, grass roots philosophy shines through his discourse, but it is the philosophy of the ordinary man, old as time, yet restated freshly and happily. Its appeal is to the ninety and nine who have never strayed into "highbrow" pastures rather than to the one who has gone astray from the common herd.

Some call him a preacher. There is the sound basis for mental and moral growth that is the glory of the sermon in all he says, yet he's never preachy. He sermonizes in the language of the street, and folks never know they've been preached at, to or about.

His lectures have been pronounced a combination of joy ride and sermon.

MANY WORKING WAY AT DE PAUW

Practically One-Half of Men Students Earning Part of Money to Finish Course

PREACHERS HEAD THE LIST

Approximately $22,127 Will Have Been Earned by Time Term Closes This Year

(By United Press.)

Greencastle, Jan. 27.—Nearly one-half of the men attending DePauw university are earning at least part of their way through school. Before the school year closes they will have earned approximately $22,127.50.

This is a substance of a report just issued by Chairman Daniel Lavengood of the employment bureau of the college Y. M. C. A. The report contained a complete survey of the labor situation at DePauw. Out of 341 men enrolled at the university, says the report, 151, or 44.3 per cent are earning at least a part of their expenses in school.

Student preachers head the list of self-supporting students, and the amount they earn per capita also is the largest. Eighteen preachers are earning an average $361 per year. There are 57 waiters earning an average of $64.74; ten stewards averaging $144.60; eight dishwashers averaging $105.75; seven clerks, averaging $117.14; six bellboys averaging $119.66; four newspaper carriers averaging $101; two librarians averaging $128; four stenographers averaging $52.50; three newspaper reporters averaging $81; and 13 doing odd jobs and averaging $74.31. The general average is $127.90 per year. Stenographers get the smallest pay of all, $52.50. Several lines of activity are not listed. One student often runs the movie machine at a local theatre and others are engaged in collecting laundry.

A great many women are earning part of their way through college, but no statistics are available.

A similar report on the amounts spent by various college students is being prepared.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin
Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

A Penny supper will be given at the Christian church on Friday February 11, by the Pastor's Aid society.

Friday, January 28th, is the date, and the Phi Delta Hall is the place, for the thirteenth annual K. of C. dance, for which elaborate preparations are being made to give everyone a good time.

Miss Helen Scudder left today for Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where she will be the guest of Robert Helm at the Phi Delta Theta house-party. The university Prom will be included in the festivities of the week-end.

A parcel post sale will be given by the Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church on Monday evening, February 14th. Packages of all sizes and kinds will go for ten cents. Refreshments will also be on sale.

A good start was made for the Epworth League last evening at the meeting at the Methodist church for the purpose of organizing a League. Most of the officers were elected, with Earl Marlatt as president. Installation will take place at the evening church service on Sunday, which service will be given over to the young people, and a large attendance is hoped for.

Several people from this city are planning to attend the party at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis tomorrow evening, for which invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hamilton. Their nephew Nicholas Vachel Lindsay, the poet, will be the guest of honor and will furnish the evening's entertainment with a recital of his poem's. Those from this city who are planning to attend are Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Muazy, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Riggs, the Misses Leonora and Alice Norris, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Frazee, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Frazee.

"Bernard Shaw" was the fruitful subject which furnished such an interesting program at the Shakespeare Club, Tuesday evening, when it was entertained by the Misses Katherine Petry, Lois Fritter and Edith Caldwell at the home of Miss Petry. A very interesting sketch of Shaw's life was given by Miss Caldwell, after which Miss Petry read several clippings bearing upon the work of Shaw. A review of some of his most interesting plays was given by Miss Fritter. Discussions were also brought up, on how Shaw's work has been received, his life's efforts, and his success. Letters of able critics to Mr. Shaw were read, giving a clear insight into his work. The program was preparatory to the lecture to be given next Tuesday by Prof. Jenkins on "Shaw, the Socialist." Aside from furnishing the program, the hostesses made the social hour especially pleasant by serving a tempting collation to the fourteen guests.

BAND OF WORKERS

An unusually large attendance marked the meeting of the Band of Workers of the First Presbyterian church which was held at the home of Mrs. J. T. Arbuckle yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Lon Link and Miss Laura Meredith as assisting hostesses. The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Arbuckle was a delightful setting for the crowd of forty-seven that enjoyed the meeting. The president, Mrs. Janetta Carr, presided over a business meeting, during which it was decided that the first section of the society will hold a rummage sale on Saturday, February 5th. The members also enjoyed a pleasant social time during which light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Oneal were pleasantly surprised last evening, when honoring their thirtieth wedding anniversary a number of their friends had planned a party and came in to spend the evening with them. The thirty guests had a merry evening, made especially so with the euchre games in which they all participated and played with lively spirit. The refreshments, which they had brought with them were served near the close of the evening and were greatly enjoyed.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Miss Anna Mary Cowan was hostess for the Young Ladies Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, when an especially interesting program made the meeting unusually delightful. Mrs. Edwards read a paper on "The Cops and Nohennebans," which was very instructive. "New Methods to Meet New Conditions," was the subject which Mrs. Robert Conway so ably discussed. Mrs. Leisure's talk on "The Egyptian Church," also brought new lights on an interesting subject. "Home Mission Study," the new book which the society is to study this year, was first discussed by Mrs. Harry Kramer. She read a delightful paper on the subject which was followed by a discussion in which she asked questions, bringing new angles on the question.

B. Y. C. D.

Judging from the enthusiastic meeting of the B. Y. C. D. class Tuesday evening, the class has started out the new year to fulfill the motto suggested by the name, which is the "Best You Can Do." About twenty-two young men and women gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pearsey last evening to discuss their plans and enjoy an informal evening together. Miss Grace Smith presided over the business session, during which it was decided to have a Penny Supper for the members of the class on Valentine Day. Miss Mary McTussey, the secretary, called the roll. Games completed this evening of profit and merriment, at the close of which delicious refreshments were served by the host and hostess. Mrs. S. G. Huntington is the efficient teacher of the class.

LEAP YEAR PARTY

Red and white, the colors of the Always Present class, were effectively used to transform the basement of the Christian church into a beautiful setting for the leap year party given there last evening. Long graceful strands of red and white crepe paper, stretched from the corners of the room, were used in such profusion that the ceiling could scarcely be seen. A huge bouquet of red flowers, was caught in the center of the draped strands of paper. In this pretty atmosphere the merry crowd of Leap Year girls and their gay young escorts gathered to enjoy the party planned by the hostesses, who were the girls of the Always Present class. The invitations were issued as follows; each girl was to invite a boy friend and one other couple, and as a result seventy-five or more accepted the invitations. "Drop-the-hnadkerchief," "Clap-in," and "Wink-em" were among the fascinating games that furnished amusement during the busy evening. Jollity and informality alone made the evening one of rare pleasure and one that will long be remembered. Ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses near the close of the happy event.

The girls giving the party were the Misses Wilma Beaver, president of the class, Ruth Champion, Marie Clark, Stella Gibson, Edna Gibson, Gertrude Wilkinson, Gladys Chadwick, Rena Mahin, Leota Mull, Gladys Behout, Loretta Talkington, Esther Foster, Rena Offut, Marie Turner, Ruth Higgins, Lavern Davis, and Hazel Smalley.

Amusements

The Princess will show a three act drama "A Bit of Lace," for the program tonight. Edna Mayo and Darwin Karr are featured and it is said to be a great human interest story, full of action and dramatic situations. The story will appeal to all. Tomorrow night the feature production, "The Cave Man" will be shown. The story was written by Gelett Burgess and originally produced in Providence, Rhode Island, as a legitimate comedy-drama with Robert Edeson in the portrayal of the leading character. "The Cave Man" is a story of the evolution of a man, inspired in one of its leaders by the folly and superficiality of society and details graphically, how a man, picked haphazard from the submerged tenth is made to grow and expand into a valuable member of worth while society by the careful nursing of a spark implanted in the brain of a coal heaver. The picture is in five parts and features Robert Edeson, Fay Wallace, Lillian Burns and George de Beck.

The Gem offers a two reel drama, "The Connecting Link" for the first picture tonight. Sherman Bainbridge and Edythe Sterling are featured. It pictures the evils wrought by a dishonest mining man. Some very thrilling scenes are enacted. The other picture on the program is a comedy entitled "Slippery Slim." Victor Potel is featured. Tomorrow night the two reel society drama, "Under a Shadow" will be shown.

"It's out here eating its breakfast," said Mrs. Lock over the telephone. "It is our first spring visitor."

FOR BRONCHITIS, SEVERE COUGHS, COLDS AND WHOOPING COUGH

Make the Best Medicine at Home—128 Teaspoonfuls for 50 Cents.

Money spent for the old style, ready-made medicine usually sold in bottles holding only 2 to 2½ ounces (16 to 20 teaspoonfuls) is largely wasted, because most of them are composed principally of sugar and water. Yet you have to pay the same price as if it were all medicine. Stop wasting this money. You can make a better remedy for bronchial affections, at home at one-fifth the cost. Merely go to Fox Bros. Drug Store and ask for 2 ounces (50¢ worth) of Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expecterant, which they guarantee will give perfect satisfaction or money will be refunded. Mix this with one pint of boiling water, which makes a full pint (128 teaspoonful). This new, simple, pleasant remedy is guaranteed to relieve the worst cough or cold, Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough. One bottle will make enough home-made medicine to probably last the whole family the entire winter. Children like it, it is so pleasant to take. It is unlike any other medicine and positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. Keep it on hand in case of emergency and stop each cough before it gets a firm hold. The above druggist in this city, will return the money just the same as is done with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador) in every single case where it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found the best remedy ever used. Absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy—under this positive guarantee.

ized the necessity of keeping people tilling the soil. George Washington saw the need in his day and in his last message to congress called for a department of agriculture.

"There are some things that can be done. We are just coming to the time when farmers are realizing their responsibility. If the young men do not have the opportunity on the farm that they can find in town, they will go to town. We want to demonstrate that the farm will pay. Commercial enterprises have been built up and have shown young men the dollar, and they have flocked to the city. The young man on the farm hears of the exceptional case where one has succeeded in the city and does not hear of the large per cent of failures. But a very small per cent that goes to the city is better than on the farm. Most of them are worse off.

"One of the greatest problems that farmers have now is that of labor. We can't solve it with the foreigner because there are not going to be any of them left, but we must solve it with the young men of our country. We have to have qualified labor and if we are going to accomplish as farmers what is mapped out for us, we need the boys that are growing up on the farm.

"We must show the boy he can make as much on the farm as in town and make life attractive to him. We must also keep the girls in the country for without them the boys will not stay."

Professor Christie entered into a discussion of ways and means to make life attractive on the farm for the young people. He spoke of the part of the church in rural communities as a leader of the social and spiritual life. The speaker dwelt for a moment, in closing, on another phase of farm life that is important in connection with the problem of keeping young people on the farm.

"A farmer is entitled to retire after twenty or thirty years of service on the farm," he declared, "but when he retires, he shouldn't move to town. He should retire on the farm. There is no place for him in town; he has nothing in common with the people of the town; he has nothing to do and does not fit in. He is against sidewalks and other public improvements and when the farm is not good enough for father and mother, it is not good enough for John and Mary and they soon follow to town. The father who retires in town leaves his son when that boy needs the benefit of his rich experience on the farm."

In introducing the first speaker,

Toastmaster Trabue expressed the opinion that the bad conditions of the roads had kept many farmers away from the banquet and he said the regret of the banqueters because more were not present was no greater than that of those who were unable to attend.

"The aim of education," said County Superintendent C. M. George, discussing the topic, "Teaching Agriculture in the Public Schools," is to teach children to think clearly, always was and always will be, but the present method is different."

The county superintendent spoke briefly of the strides that had been made in vocational education in the last few years and said the great problem with respect to it was to get the children to demonstrate what they have learned.

Dr. F. G. Hackleman, responding to the toast, "The Country Doctor," said that familiar character was one of "God's noblemen." Dr. Hackleman said the country doctor gave freely of his time and made many sacrifices when he was seldom repaid.

"He takes the lead in public enterprises that affect the health of the community and thereby reduces his revenue," said the doctor.

The Rev. Moody Edwards of New Salem, pastor of the Little Elatrock Christian church, said the problem of the country was the reservoir for the city and that if a pure city life was wanted for the future, it should be founded in the country life today.

"It is the future where the country church will make itself felt," declared the minister. "We were expecting immediate results and were disappointed, but we are just now beginning to realize them." He called attention to the fact that the problem was one of such grave import that President Wilson recently went to Columbus, O., to address a convention of the Churches of Christ on the relation of the country church to the community.

"The church," he continued, "is the only institution that ministers to the social and spiritual needs of the community. The destructive side of the church, if it preserves itself, must be overcome. Conservatism of the farmers is a factor in the destructive side. The farmer is conservative from circumstances and not by nature, because he has not witnessed so keenly the progress as the man of the city. The church must destroy this sense of conservatism.

"The church must meet another problem—the sense of individualism. The church that strangles efforts at advancement is not meeting this problem. The sense of literalism is another that must be done away with. The great problem is getting the church to realize that it is alive and that it is the life of the community."

The Rev. Mr. Edwards also said the problem also had its constructive side with many phases. George Campbell injected lots of fun into the banquet in his toast on "The Farmer and the Law." He said that the farmer, the substantial basis of all wealth and prosperity, stands on one side of the proposition and the law on the other.

"Look at the opportunities for trouble in the life of the farmer—the partition fence, the division road and the community ditch," he declared. "When he gets into trouble, the farmer goes to the law through his lawyer. The lawyer writes his deeds, his mortgages, his contracts, his will—and then breaks them. He is an organizer as well as a disorganizer. It may seem that the lawyer has the best of it, but it has to be that way to make things right."

"As Brother Edwards said," continued the speaker, "the spirit of conservatism permeates their atmosphere. They have permitted themselves to be put to sleep by the fellow at the other end of the line. What they need is organization. Organize—and get the lawyers to do it," was his parting injunction, which was greeted with laughter and applause.

FILMS ARE SHOWN FOR FIRST TIME

Persons at Farmers Banquet Have Opportunity to See Educational Pictures at School

PLANS FOR SHOWING THEM

Those who attended the farmers banquet at the Graham Annex gymnasium last night had first opportunity ever afforded a Rushville audience to view a sample of moving pictures the school will have to offer since its new motion picture machine has been installed in the auditorium. After the banquet and toasts, the crowd went to the auditorium where two educational reels were shown.

Superintendent J. H. Scholl said last night that it had been found that twenty films could be obtained from the extension department of Indiana university and that there were many other sources from which to get films at no other expense than express charges. The Chicago Record-Herald will furnish one educational film together with a comic, each month and a number of state universities have film services for public schools.

Arrangements are to be made to cover the skylights in the auditorium so that the pictures may be shown to the school children in the afternoon. Some plan will be devised to obtain some revenue from the pictures to pay incidental expenses.

Another Wonderful Recovery From Kidney Trouble

For nearly nine years I was a great sufferer from what my doctors said was Kidney trouble and my blood was out of order; enduring all that time excruciating pain in my back and across my bowels. I was drawn down so that I could only walk with my hands on my knees. My doctor said he could do nothing for me. I tried many kinds of medicine, but all to no avail. A friend told me about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and as I had tried everything else that I heard of, I bought a bottle of Swamp-Root and it did wonders for me. I prize it higher than any other medicine and I shall recommend it to my friends. I wish to add right here that after using Swamp-Root for two months I began to straighten up and am now sound and well, and feel like I might live a long time yet to tell what your medicine has done for me.

What A. Gunn Haydon of Rushville has to say about cream separators this week

All Highest Prize Butter De Laval Made THE most important butter scoring contests take place at the Annual Convention of the National Buttermakers' Association, held in recent years in conjunction with the National Dairy Show in Chicago. The first prize winners at every convention of the Association since its organization in 1892 have been as follows—all De Laval users. 1892—Louis Brahe 1893—C. W. Smith 1894—F. C. Oitrogge 1895—Thomas Milton 1896—H. N. Miller 1897—Samuel Haugdahl 1898—A. W. McCall 1899—H. T. Sondergaard 1900—E. O. Quenqvold 1901—E. L. Duxbury 1902—L. S. Taylor 1903—J. C. Joslin, World's Fair, St. Louis, Grand Prize Butter 1904—A. Carlson 1905—A. Lindblad 1906—J. C. Past 1907—A. J. Anderson 1908—Albert Camp 1909—J. Anderson 1910—A. L. Radke 1911—O. N. Petersen 1912—Thomas Sadler 1913—Emil G. Oman (There were no national conventions in 1894, 1903, and 1905.)

When you use a De Laval Separator you not only get more cream but better cream as well

THE best evidence of this is that during the last twenty-five years butter made from De Laval separated cream has invariably scored the highest at all important contests and state fairs. Practically all the cream entered in the International Milk and Cream Show held in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition, was separated by De Laval, and every first prize, and most all the other prizes, were won by De Laval separated cream.

These facts are simply further proof of De Laval supremacy in everything that goes to make a good cream separator. Don't buy any separator until you give us an opportunity to let you see and try a De Laval. We will be glad to send one out to your farm on trial any time you say. Just phone, send a post card, or call and we will be glad to give you all the information you wish.

Sooner or later you will buy a DE LAVAL

obtaining the jury to try the case. A delay was also occasioned in securing a court stenographer. Mrs. Anna Sullivan Drago finally consented to act. One of the peculiar things noticed in securing a jury was the number of men interested in the case that made them ineligible for jury service. In the original panel three men were found who had signed the remonstrance against the road; one that had signed the original petition; one that was related to William A. Alexander and one of the original viewers of the road was also picked up. None of these men were permitted to sit on the jury.

It was after eleven o'clock this morning before the jury was selected and then the opening statements made. Frank J. Hall stated the case for the plaintiff, William A. Alexander and was followed by John H. Kiplinger for the defendants, William Harton, et al. The petitioners are represented by Hall and Campbell, John A. Tittsworth and J. Q. Thomas and the remonstrators, that faction headed by William Harton, are represented by Kiplinger and Smith.

The jury finally selected to try the case is composed of the following: Frank, Hudelson, George Hardesty, Arthur George, Edgar Morris, Thomas Lower, H. Lee Wilson, D. C. Buell, Peter Kraus, James L. Hays, Jabez Winship, Walter Maple, and Alva Swain.

THREW DISHES AT SPOUSE

Catherine Sampson Also Got Drunk, Divorce Complaint Said

Clem Sampson today filed suit for divorce from Catherine Sampson, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. The complaint states that they were married at Paris, Ill., on August 22, 1913 and separated Jan. 27. He states that he was compelled to leave her because he could no longer stand the cruel treatment. The complaint alleges that she frequently got drunk and on at least one occasion broke up the dishes and threw them at him. Sampson states that when it was impossible for her to buy whiskey in Rushville she would go to Connersville after it, and alleges that she has gone over there as often as four times a month. He also alleges that she mistreated her child, a daughter by a former husband.

Stomach Troubles Quickly Cured

People go on suffering from little stomach troubles for years, and imagine they have a serious disease. They over-eat, or over-drink and force on the stomach a lot of extra work, but they never think that the stomach needs extra help to do the extra work.

If these people would take Tonline Tablets regularly they would be a great big help to the stomach in its strain of over-work. No matter what you eat or drink Tonline tabs sweeten your sour stomach and stop gas belching in five minutes. The heaviness disappears, and the stomach is greatly aided in its work of digestion.

TONILINE TABLETS

all distress, but if taken regularly will absolutely cure indigestion by building up the flabby, overworked walls of the stomach and make them strong enough to digest the most hearty meal. For sale by

STORIES FROM WAR FRONT

By CARL W. ACKERMAN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin, Dec. 19.—(By Mail) Out hunting today with the American Military Attache in Berlin, Colonel Kuhns, Ambassador Gerard killed two small deer with one shot. The Colonel on the other hand, fired two shots without hitting a deer!

Did Gerard's friends not know that he was an expert-crack-never-miss-aim rifleman, they would think this an accident, but this is the second time this winter that Gerard killed two deer with one shot! Today it happened thus:

Gerard and the Colonel went out to the Ambassador's game preserve near Berlin. Two small deer appeared. Gerard fired at one. The bullet went through its heart, struck a rib, glanced out the side and went through the second deer! More game appeared, and the officer took a shot and another shot, but the deer disappeared.

On their way home Gerard decided he would like to bag a duck for dinner because Mrs. Gerard's mother is visiting here and likes duck. It was dark. The Ambassador spotted one, fired and bagged it. But when he got it home it was too old to eat.

"That's what I get for shooting ducks at night," remarked Gerard smilingly when he reached the Embassy.

HUDSON SUPER-SIX

(Patented December 28, 1915)

76 Horse Power

¶ The Super-Six—a Hudson invention—has come to claim the sovereign place in motors. ¶ With six little cylinders it develops 76-h. p. That's 80% more than other like-size Sixes. ¶ It has broken all records in quick acceleration. ¶ In official test, a stock car has made 72 3/4 miles in an hour. ¶ The marvel is, we attain this result with six small cylinders. ¶ They were made to yield nearly double power—to outdo Eights and Twelves. And they've done that by ending vibration. ¶ So the Super-Six is utterly quiet. The car seems to move by magic. It has amazing flexibility. And it has, in addition, this wealth of reserve power.

CASEY'S PAROLE
REVOKED TODAY*Convicted "Bootlegger" Will Have to Serve Out Balance of Sentence of 110 Days.*ALSO THAT FINE OF $290*Governor's Order Takes Into Consideration Another Charge of Which he Was Convicted.

The parole of Newton Casey, convicted "bootlegger," was revoked today following receipt of an order from Governor Ralston. Casey can now peacefully serve out the balance of a sentence of 110 days and a fine of $290 without worrying about the new charge against him. The present case will not be tried until he has served this sentence. The order of the governor is as follows:

"Whereas, one Newton Casey was convicted in the circuit court of Rush county, Indiana, on a charge of selling intoxicating liquors without a license and sentenced to a term of one hundred twenty (120) days in jail of said county, to which was added a fine of $380 and costs; and,

"Whereas, He was paroled therefrom by the governor of the state of Indiana on June 7, 1915 and,

"Whereas, It is made to appear by letter from Hon. Will M. Sparks, judge of the Rush Circuit court and Hon. Albert C. Stevens, prosecuting attorney of Rush county, that said Newton Casey is again charged with having operated a "blind tiger," and has been a fugitive from justice from November 10, 1915 until, January 23, 1916, when he was arrested and returned to the county jail at Rushville:

"Now therefore, I, Samuel M. Ralston, Governor of the state of Indiana, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the constitution and the laws of said state, hereby revoked said parole granted to said Newton Casey.

"In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state of Indiana, at the Capitol in the city of Indianapolis, this 27th day of January, 1916.

SAMUEL M. RALSTON,
Governor.

The amount of the fine referred to by Governor Ralston evidently takes into consideration both the fines received by Casey on the "blind tiger" charge and the associating charge of which he was convicted.

PLAYS BIG PART*Plaintiffs Who Seek to Change Route of Highway Introduce Testimony About Its Condition.*DEFENSE BEGINS LATE TODAY*Court Room is Thronged With Men, Indicating Interests That is Being Taken in Case.

The defense, or more properly the remonstrators to the proposed change in the Greenfield road as planned in the petition of William A. Alexander and others, started introducing evidence in the case now on trial this afternoon. The petitioners will probably have some more evidence in rebuttal, but on direct testimony they closed their case.

It is hardly likely that the case will go to the jury before Monday afternoon. The defense has a large number of witnesses. The court room was again thronged today. The crowd is composed of men and indicates that the case is of interest not only to the neighborhood involved but to the entire township.

Most of the testimony introduced this morning tended to show the nature and condition of the old road that would be abandoned in case the new portion of the road is ordered built. Condition of the culverts and width of the grade played a prominent part in the testimony.

The jury will be taken to the scene of the proposed change after the evidence is submitted. Some of the witnesses who testified for the petitioners were Homer Powell, William Dagler, Willard Amos, L. B. Osborn, James Shanahan, Frank Cross, Samuel L. Trabue and Ollie J. Cook.

Judge Sparks has appointed Judge Fred C. Gause as special judge to hear the claim of Louisa G. Price against the estate of the late William L. Price. Judge Gause is now acting as special judge here in the road case.

The case of Joseph O. Painter against William A. Woolen, on a note demanding $700 has been dismissed and the costs paid.

While looking for the two Morristown boys that they ran away from home the police accidentally ran onto two boys, living 3 miles east of Connersville, who were at first believed to be runaways. The boys told a straight story and were allowed to continue their journey. The boys stated that they were going to the home of a relative in Columbus and as they only had $2.35 between them they walked from Connersville here. The boys gave their names as Harry and William Ware, ages 16 and 14 respectively. The boys were given a bed at a local hotel last night and left for Columbus this morning. The local police failed to find any trace of the two Morristown boys.

INTIMIDATION*Republican Workers Here Say Press
Agent Thompson is Misrepresenting Primary Law.*LATE RULING CONTRADICTED*Leaves Impression That Voters Who Crosses to Another Party is Liable to Imprisonment.

Republican party workers in this county do not know what to think of the various interpretations that are being placed on the new state-wide primary law. While the state supreme court has held that only Republicans can challenge those who attempt to express their choice of candidates on the Republican primary ballot, the same rule applying with other parties, Republicans workers here point out that Willis S. Thompson, paid press agent of the Democratic state organization, is writing articles to leave the impression that if a voter supported one ticket in the last election, he can not cross over and help nominate the ticket of another party.

They point to the fact that Thompson said in one of his articles recently that "the state-wide primary law says that if any voter attempts to cross from the party he supported in the last election he shall be guilty of a criminal offense, for which he shall be fined, imprisoned and disfranchised."

Republicans workers here say that is a plain attempt at misrepresentation, in the light of the supreme court decision. However, it is recalled, the supreme court did not declare that section unconstitutional, but simply placed a construction upon it. But if that construction is to rule, the assertion of the hired press agent of the state organization that a voter who switches parties is liable to a fine, imprisonment and disfranchisement is an effort at intimidation, it is declared.

Republicans here and elsewhere from the first contended that section ten regarding the qualification of voters was a political coup to prevent Progressives affiliating with the Republican party by making it illegal for them to help nominate the ticket in the primaries. Although the construction of supreme court throws a different light on the section, it is contended by many here that the articles by the state organization press agent clearly indicates the intention of the state organization to befuddle the Progressives and intimidate them so that they will not participate in the Republican primaries even though they have that privilege under the law.

Republicans who have noted Thompson's assertions have looked up the primary law and have found that section 38 is the only one providing a penalty for fraudulent voting. It is quoted as follows:

"Whoever, not having the legal qualifications of a voter at any primary election authorized by law to be held in the state, votes, or offers to vote, as such primary election, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or less than ten dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year or less than one month or both, and disfranchised and rendered incapable of holding any office of trust or profit for any determinate time.

"Whoever knowingly votes or offers to vote at a primary election in any precinct except the one in which he presides shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or less than ten dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year nor less than one month, or both, and

The call to the Rev. John T. Aikin of Wilmerding, Pa., to accept the pastorate of the United Presbyterian church was moderated at a congregational meeting at the church Thursday evening and the Rev. Mr. Aikin will begin his pastorate here Sunday, February 13. The vote to extend the call was unanimous. Those who had not already signed the call did so last night. The sermon for the congregational meeting was preached by the Rev. Fred Elliott of Springhill, Ind., and Dr. A. W. Rev. M. Aikin has been serving as the regular pastor of the church at Wilmerding for a number of years and during his pastorate there built a new church. He will not come here a stranger, because he filled the pulpit here for a few weeks a short time ago and preached one of the sermons at the week of prayer services.

LOUIS D. BRANDIES

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 28.—Louis D. Brandies was named by President Wilson today associate justice of the United States supreme court to succeed Justice Lamar, deceased.

The appointment of Brandies caused great surprise here. While the Boston legal expert had been mentioned for the place and had been urged editorially by numerous newspapers he was considered to have little political backing.

The nomination was sent by the president to the senate shortly after one o'clock and created a sensation in that body where almost every Democratic member had committed himself for one candidate or another. Brandies has been known as the "peoples lawyer." He was born in Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13, 1856 and was graduated from Harvard. While still young, he became wealthy in his law practice, his chief clients being corporations. He retired several years ago

TO FIGHT FIRST
STREET PAVING*Property Owners Decide to Circulate
Three Kinds of Remonstrances to Defeat it.*MEETING THURSDAY NIGHT*Majority Favor Trying to Get Improvement Under Three-Mile Road Law—Many Difficulties.

The city council, from all indications, will have a hard time putting the first street paving improvement through in the manner already started. A meeting of the property owners opposed to the improvement was held last night in the assembly room of the court house and steps were taken to fight the action of the council.

The meeting was attended by thirty-five or forty property owners of the street, including not only resident property owners, but all owners of property on the street. The city council has passed a resolution calling for the paving of the street and February 14 is the time set for hearing remonstrances. The meeting last night voted to employ an attorney and to present the remonstrance to the council.

Three different methods of remonstrating can be used and it is more than likely than instead of one remonstrance three will be presented to the city council. One form remonstrance requires the signature of a majority of the resident property owners. This is considered the most difficult of the three forms to secure as many of the people residing on the street are renters.

The second form considered was that signed by eighty per cent of the property owners. This remonstrance would take in all property owners, regardless of whether they live on the street. The third form of remonstrance is that representing fifty per cent of the total valuation of the property on the street.

The various forms of remonstrances were discussed at the meeting and it was practically decided that in order to be on the safe side all three would be used in an effort to prevent the street from being built by the city as called for in the plans and specifications. It was stated that only about two property owners on the entire street favor the improvement.

It is also stated that the majority would favor the improvement if it

Do Husbands
Spend Money
Foolishly?

Wives like to think so and say so. They are fond of twitting "lesser halves" about the male practice of rushing into a store and buying the first thing in sight.

Wives unanimously consider themselves superior shoppers.

But perhaps husbands with native masculine shrewdness know in advance from reading the newspaper advertising just what is a fair price.

Men are natural exponents of business efficiency, you know.

Doubtless, the average wife will pooh pooh this notion and maintain that she is the newspaper advertising reader of the family.

One thing both are secretly agreed on—it pays to read newspaper advertising.

were done under the three-mile road law. Rushville township is not bonded to the limit and if the commissioners could be prevailed upon to order the street built in preference to some that are already pending, it would no doubt go through.

If the street is paved numerous difficulties will be encountered. One of these will be the moving of an entire block of houses. The property involved would have to be condemned and the balance of the property owners thus benefited would have to stand the damages.

Another Wonderful Recovery From Kidney Trouble

For nearly nine years I was a great sufferer from what my doctors said was kidney trouble and my blood was out of order; enduring all that time excruciating pain in my back and across my bowels. I was drawn down so that I could only walk with my hands on my knees. My doctor said he could do nothing for me. I tried many kinds of medicine, but all to no avail. A friend told me about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and as I had tried everything else that I heard of, I bought a bottle of Swamp-Root and it did wonders for me. I prize it higher than any other medicine and I shall recommend it to my friends. I wish to add right here that after using Swamp-Root for two months I began to straighten up and am now sound and well, and feel like I might live a long time yet to tell what your medicine has done for me.

EYES OF SAXONY ON CROWN PRINCE

Rumor Says King Frederick May Abdicate.

FEAR MOTHER'S INFLUENCE.

Comparative Poverty Has Kept Divorced Wife of Ruler Quiet In Recent Years, but People Are Worried That She Will Become Active Again if Son Takes Throne.

Paris.—A rumor that King Frederick of Saxony was considering the abdication of his throne in favor of his son, Prince George, probably owes its inspiration to the festivities arranged in Dresden for the young man's twenty-third birthday anniversary on Jan. 15, coupled with the fact that for the past three years, since he became twenty, he has been gradually initiated into state affairs, more and more taking his father's place in the reception of minor committees from the council of ministers and parliament. This has been in accordance with the policy of state to take every precautionary measure possible to protect the heir to the Saxon throne and the Saxon people from the influence of Prince George's mother, the notorious ex-Crown Princess Louise, in the event of the sudden death of King Frederick and the accession of Prince George.

The Saxon government fears ex-Crown Princess Louise's baneful influence upon her son almost as much as the Prussians of a century ago feared Napoleon. She is their nightmare, and as long as Prince George remains young and without experience in the grave responsibilities of state the government is in dread of possible complications. Everything is being done to give him a full appreciation of his duty as king.

Prince George has not seen his mother for several years, since her so-called "memoirs" were published. She eloped from the royal palace some years ago with his tutor, Giron, and was divorced by King Frederick, being compelled to renounce her title as crown princess, her husband conferring upon her the title of Countess of Montignoso. The king took charge of the girl baby born to Louise after her elopement, the child being christened as the king's and given the name of Princess Anne Monique Pie, being included in the royal family and kept away from the mother entirely. Louise's later escapade in marrying an Italian pianist, Toselli, the publicity of a divorce from him and a fight for the child born of this union, with the publication of her memoirs ridiculing her husband's family, had the effect of completely alienating King Frederick and his government from her. Comparative poverty has kept her quiet in recent years.

Prince George's marriage has already received a good deal of attention by his father and the Dresden court, since it is obviously wise to see him settled down early with a prudent wife, whose influence would counteract any which his mother would attempt to exert. A few months before the war it was said that informal negotiations had been opened with the czar for an alliance between the heir to the Saxon throne and the Grand Duchess Tatiana, the czar's second daughter, who will be nineteen next May, a beautiful girl, vivacious and intelligent. This match is, of course, quite impossible now, and the prospective bride generally spoken of at this time is Princess Stephanie of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, the daughter of Prince Karl of Hohenzollern, who is two years younger than Prince George.

Italian Lady Who Never Tasted Water Outlived Twelve Children Who Did. Rome.—Mrs. Paulina Pelligrini, who never tasted water, but always drank wine, died at San Michele recently, aged 117 years. Her twelve children, who, according to the old lady, "were addicted to the pernicious habit of drinking water," have been dead many years.

Throw Money Out Window

When Surrounded by Police.

ARE TIPPED OFF BY A WOMAN

Exact Sum Obtained by Bandits is Given Out Today as $15,616.

All Was in Currency.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Five men, suspects in yesterday's daring robbery of Jake Stahl's Washington Park national bank, threw thousands of dollars in currency and coin from a window into the street when their rooming house was raided today by police. A newsboy, George Mont, picked up the money.

Three women were arrested with the men, who were lined up before the bank employees for identification.

The raid was made on a tip from a woman. Several of the men made attempts to escape, but a cordon of police with drawn guns blocked them at every turn. The money thrown from the window was in a box, said to contain from $3,000 to $10,000. Police would give no definite amounts early in the day.

The exact sum secured by the bandits in the bank robbery was given out today as $15,616. All of it was in currency.

EDISON BATTERY IS USED BY ONE EUROPEAN NATION.

Inventor's Representative Defends Apparatus on Submarine E-2.

Thomas A. Edison's personal representative and chief engineer, Dr. Miller Reese Hutchison, has declared that Mr. Edison's submarine safety battery was in use in the war in Europe. Up to that moment it had been supposed that the United States had an option on the exclusive use of the device if the tests to which it was to be subjected proved satisfactory.

The announcement came while Dr. Hutchison was defending the Edison battery in the E-2, in which there was an explosion in the Brooklyn navy yard, against hints and suggestions that the battery had created the hydrogen gas that is supposed to have wrecked the interior of the boat, killed four men and injured ten. As to the use of the Edison battery in the European war, Dr. Hutchison said:

"The Edison cells have been in use on submarines for a long time, although this is not generally known. Mr. Edison is not in the munitions business, and he has not sold any since the war, but before that three submarines of a certain European power were fitted with these batteries. They have not met with any accident."

"One of them has sunk seventeen vessels, and another recently sank a transport filled with troops and the cruiser that was conveying the transport. Two of the United States navy's big floating cranes, one at Hawaii and the other at the Boston navy yard, have used the Edison battery since 1913 without a sign of trouble."

The British submarine E-19 may be one of the three indicated by Mr. Hutchison. In the October campaign against German commerce in the Baltic she was credited with sinking fifteen ships up to the end of that month, and four more were sunk two days later, two of them credited to the same boat. There have been reports from uncensored sources of British submarines doing effective work in the eastern Mediterranean against troopships and transports, and the E-19 may have been sent there.

WAR COST $73,000,000 A DAY

Germany and Her Allies Spend $20,000,000 and Entente Powers the Rest.

After prolonged study of all available statistics Alfred Neymarck, French economist, finds that the daily cost of the war to five of the belligerents has attained $73,000,000, divided as follows:

Germany, including advances to her allies, $20,000,000; France, $16,000,000; Great Britain, $19,000,000; Russia, $13,000,000; Italy, $5,000,000.

Italy's expenses must rise to over $6,000,000 daily, however, for by the end of July she will have spent $3,000,000,000 altogether. The belligerent war loans to the end of last October totaled $24,000,000,000, of which the United States supplied $900,000,000. The allies have borrowed $14,000,000,000 and the central empires $10,000,000,000.

Breaking Faith

If there has ever been any lingering doubt as to President Wilson's attitude toward the one-term plank of the Baltimore platform, that doubt was dispelled by his acceptance of the Indiana ballot nominating him on the Democratic ticket for 1916, and resolved itself into a certainty with the publication recently of his letter of February 1913 to A. Mitchell Palmer.

"Our platform is not molasses to catch flies, it means business. It means what it says," were the words of Mr. Wilson spoken during his 1912 campaign. The Baltimore platform declared for a single presidential term, and favored the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution making the President ineligible for re-election. The plank concluded: "and we pledge the candidate of this convention to this principle." On that platform Mr. Wilson accepted his nomination, and on it he was elected in December 1912.

The Senate, on February 1, 1913, adopted a joint resolution to amend the Constitution so as to provide for a single presidential term. In all candor it may be stated that a resolution was not very popular with the Republicans who voted for it. It was intended so far as they were concerned, to restrict, if possible, the future activities of Mr. Roosevelt. But a great many of the Democratic Senators, relying on Mr. Wilson's sincerity, voted for the measure, and it then went over to the House for action. What Mr. Wilson had privately considered a joke was in a fair way to become a reality, so his chief spokesman in the House, A. Mitchell Palmer, was called into conference, which resulted in a letter from President-elect Wilson to Mr. Palmer in which he said, "put the present customary limitation of two terms into the Constitution, and give the President a chance to win the full service by proving himself fit for it." This letter was laid before the committee on the judiciary which had the resolution in charge, and the resolution immediately became a fit matter for reference to the committee on the disposition of useless papers.

Thus it transpires that one month before he took the oath of office as President of the United States, Mr. Wilson had broken faith with the people who relied on the platform promises, and was a party to the violation of the one term plank. He stood before the great American tribunal on March 4, 1913, and took his inaugural oath with unclean hands. With such a beginning, by setting such an example to his followers, what is there surprising in the fact that many planks in the Baltimore platform has since been smashed into smithereens?

Young women in England today are handing white feathers to the young men who refuse to enlist. And such an extravagant waste of perfectly good feathers.

DRINK HOT TEA
FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

Friends in Ohio.

(Marion, Ohio Star.)

There is many an Ohio Republican watching with interest the progress of the Indiana Republican primary campaign, especially with regard to the selection of a candidate for United States senator. This is because of the large personal acquaintance of James E. Watson in Ohio, and the many warm friendships which attend that acquaintance. Moreover, Mr. Watson, or Jim, as his friends delight to call him, is recognized as one of the big Republicans of the country, who not only has an understanding knowledge of big public questions, and has won his way to recognized leadership, but is in the very front rank of forceful men on the stump. Few more are so generally in demand in a national campaign and none leaves a better impression in the wake of his travels.

For a long while Watson was conspicuous in the Republican majority in house of congress, and did excellent work there. A few years ago he made the race for governor of Indiana, and suffered from the ebb of the tide of Republican popularity. But that was no fault of Watson, and did not weaken him in the estimate of those who had learned his capacity or knew of his admirable personal attributes. And it didn't weaken his own political faith, it didn't lead him to omit any of his endeavors for a return to Republican policies.

The Star would not disparage any of Mr. Watson's fellow Republicans who are seeking the honor of giving Indiana Republican representation in the senate. But it does know and delights to recite Watson's wonderful popularity. Wherever Republicans meet together and Watson is present, he is invariably called for to add to the wisdom and enthusiasm of the occasion. There have been many such meetings in Indiana in the last six months, and it little mattered how full the program was, Watson was invariably and insistently called for. He is the idol of the live, hustling, determined Republicans, and men of that type never fail to prove strong nominees. So, if Indiana Republicans choose James E. Watson for their standard bearer we shall not only look forward to his election with confidence but we shall be able to congratulate Indiana on her distinguished and able representative in the federal senate.

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.)

The "Man of The Hour" in 1864

Indiana's constitution almost robbed her and the nation of a mighty arm of defense. In 1864 Morton was the one man for governor, and it was only the fact that in 1860 he had been elected as lieutenant governor, succeeding Governor Land after three days, that made him eligible for the nomination in 1864. Even at that the democrats so hated Morton that they raised the constitutional issue ineffectively. The Union convention, "with a whirlwind of applause," passed a resolution declaring for Lincoln and Morton.

WHEN THE BLUE
CAME MARCHING HOME

"Whenever the veteran troops returned Morton provided a fitting welcome. A warm lunch was served to each regiment as soon as it crossed the Ohio at Jeffersonville. Free entertainment was also given at Indianapolis, and meals were provided at the Soldiers' Home. The troops marched through the principal thoroughfares, where they were greeted by an enthusiastic multitude. They then assembled at the State House where the Governor and others addressed them. Day after day the newspapers teemed with accounts of these receptions. When these regiments returned again to the field, the Governor was there to offer the new flags which were given to them and bid them God speed."—Foulke.

TO GIVE 6,000 ACRES
FOR HOME FOR BOYSKansas Ranchman Working Out a Scheme of Philanthropy.

Topeka, Kan.—John Marriage, owner of the Eagle Canyon ranch in Mulhville, is going to turn his 6,000 acre ranch over to a home for orphan and neglected boys as a training school in farming. Marriage told of his plans in a letter to Governor Capper. He wants the governor to help.

He would make the Kiowa county ranch a big home for boys, where they may go to school, learn to farm, live right and become honest and industrious farmers. "I have a ranch of 6,000 acres, fully equipped with machinery and stocked with pure bred cattle," the letter said. "It is excellent land, 2,400 acres devoted to farming and 3,600 acres in pasture. For years I have been operating it with hired help, but I want to get different helpers and co-operate with them on a profit sharing plan so they can have a good living and comfortable home here so long as they do right and are satisfied to remain."

"This property never is to be sold, but is to be made into a training home for orphans and neglected boys. There will be three trustees to have the general management of the property and nine co-operators to do the work and live Christian examples. We are non-sectarian, but take the whole Bible as our creed. Each co-operator will be permitted to draw cash each month for his living, also be credited Jan. 1 of each year for a share of the ranch profits. We have good schools and Sunday schools on the ranch. No one who uses liquor, tobacco, vulgarity or profanity will be tolerated."

Just how many boys or what sort of boys are to be taken and under what conditions they are to be permitted to enter the ranch school has not been worked out. Mr. Marriage is consulting other philanthropists.

SIGNAL TO KNOW HUSBAND.

Brother of Bridegroom, His Counterpart, Best Man at Wedding.

Brockton, Mass.—A secret identification signal was adopted by Evangelist Lacouture at his marriage to Miss Delina Harpin in order that his bride should be able to distinguish him from his twin brother, Narcisse Lacouture.

Narcisse was his brother's best man. The brothers were dressed alike, as they always have been, and their closest friends have been unable to tell them apart. At the reception Narcisse enjoyed himself thoroughly, receiving many of the osculatory congratulations from fair guests intended for his brother.

Mr. George Harrell was in my employ for about two years as janitor and general utility man about the building. I found him capable, honest, upright and always on the job.

Yours Respectfully,

CANDIDATE FOR CLERK

Of the Circuit Court.

Subject to the Decision of the Republican Primaries March 7, 1916.

To the Republicans of Rush County:

As it is nearly impossible to see each one individually we are authorized to take this method of placing his name before the voters for their consideration.

WHO IS HE?

He is a farmer, 48 years old, born and always lived on the farm where he now resides and received his education in the township and city schools.

He makes no claim to be entitled to the office any more than any other Republican that has always voted and worked for the party.

He does not say he needs the office to make a living as he is making a very good living where he is, but if nominated and elected he does not promise to give the salary away as he never saw any one yet who could not use another dollar or two.

He has been a Republican all his life; his father has been a Republican since the birth of the party; and his grandfather was a Whig before he was a Republican. None of them have ever held a county office or even asked for one.

If nominated and elected, he promises to serve the people to the best of his ability.

DINNER FOR LAWYERS

Donald Smith and John H. Kiplinger were hosts to the members of the Rush County bar last evening when an elaborate dinner was given at the Elks club rooms. The dance hall was attractively transformed into a well-appointed dining room for the occasion. The tables were cleverly arranged in the form of a letter T, at the top of which the five guests were seated, including Judge Will M. Sparks, Judge Fred Gause, of Newcastle; Judge Alonzo Blair of Shelbyville, Claude Cambern, and Frank J. Hall. The color scheme of pink and white was artistically carried out with a profusion of carnations. Several generous bouquets, gracefully arranged with greenery, were placed here and there upon the festive board. Dainty pink carnations were at each place also. Miniature pipes projected from the painted place cards, which marked the places. The elegant dinner was beautifully served and delicious from the oyster cocktail to the demi tasse. The guests added greatly to the pleasure of the happy event by the interesting and clever toasts given. With Judge Sparks as the efficient toastmaster, the speakers were fittingly introduced. First on the toast list was John A. Tittsworth whose toast on "The Profession" was excellent. "It Don't Look Good To Me," was the clever toast in which the weaknesses of the lawyers present were ridiculed, in an amusing way, by Albert Stevens. Tributes were paid to Ben L. Smith, George C. Clark and other notable men, who were among the first in the Rush county bar, in the toast "Reminiscences," by Frank Hall. S. L. Trubue likened the judges to "Old Hooligan's Forms" the well-known book, in his spicy talk. At the close of the regular well-prepared toast list, the toast master called for talks from Judge Blair and Judge Gause. Credit and praise was duly received by hospitable hosts who generously furnished such a royal entertainment for their fellow members of the bar, who enjoyed the memorable occasion. Aside from these mentioned, the following were present: Cary Carson of Indianapolis, Howard E. Barret, George Young, Vincent Young, Walter E. Smith, T. M. Offutt, B. F. Miller, A. L. Gary, J. T. Arbuckle, Arthur B. Irvin and Perry Oneal.

ON 25 CENTS A DAY HE GOES TO COLLEGE

Georgia Youth Lives Alone In Self Made Shack.

Savannah, Ga.—A youth eighteen years old is living at the Georgia School of Technology and acquiring an education on 25 cents a day. On the school register he is marked as "H. S. Cole, Co-op," and he has built a shack on a nearby lot, where he sleeps and eats and cooks his own food. He pursues his studies during his spare minutes.

Cole works two weeks a month for the Atlanta Steel company, and on what he earns during this period he goes to school for two weeks at the school. His pay check at the steel factory is $12 every thirty days. That suffices to pay for his food, his tuition and his books. He doesn't have any incidentals. When he feels the need of a little recreation he indulges in an hour or so of trigonometry. He is a son of D. C. Cole, formerly assistant postmaster at Atlanta, now living at Marietta.

"It was just a few days before school opened that I found there was to be no more college for me," said the student. "I knew about the 'co-op' student, and the idea occurred to me that I might put up a shack and live in it and be independent. I came down from Marietta and went to see Mr. Peters and asked him if I might build some sort of place on his land that I could live in, and he said I could."

The shop instructors helped him, and the school gave him a door and a window. Otherwise the house was built by Cole alone. As far as essentials go, it was finished in three days.

Cole sits over an oil lamp and studies while the winds beat a tattoo on his homemade house and apparently tries at times to blow both house and owner away. He gets up at 6 o'clock in the morning to cook his breakfast and wash his dishes, and he reaches his classes as fresh and smiling as students from dormitory or home.

During the two weeks he works at the steel mill Cole's rising hour is 5 o'clock. Then he gets breakfast and walks to the mill. He works ten hours a day and studies at night.

"What are you going to do with yourself?" he was asked.

"I haven't decided yet," he answered. "Maybe I'll be an electrical or mechanical engineer, perhaps a farmer. All I've decided just now is that I want a college education."

OSAGE INDIANS CITIZENS.

2,229 Added to Oklahoma's Population by Court's Decision.

Pawhuska, Okla.—Oklahoma received a gift of 2,229 citizens, each of whom is worth about $30,000, when Federal Judge Henry Hudson handed down a decision holding that all Osage Indians were full citizens of the United States and as such were entitled to all rights granted in the Fourteenth amendment.

The decision gives the members of the tribe complete control over their personal property, but does not affect their real estate holdings.

Red Heads Good Citizens.

FEW DIE IN KANSAS BECAUSE IT'S "DRY"

Lowest Death Rate of Any State Explained by Statistician.

Topeka, Kan.—"Kansas, with a rate of 9.8 in each 1,000 population, has the lowest death rate of any state in the Union, because the people do not drink liquor, because they have money enough to live right and because they have the intelligence to read of the conditions that make for short lives and know how to dodge them."

That is the answer of W. J. V. Deacon, registrar of the Kansas vital statistics bureau, to Samuel L. Rogers, director of the United States bureau of the census. The government official wrote to Mr. Deacon to get an explanation of why the Kansas death rate is so low. In reply Mr. Deacon wrote:

"Kansas is almost wholly an agricultural state; there are only twelve cities in the state of more than 100,000 population, and there is a gratifying absence of slum districts in the cities. Aside from the southeast corner of the state there is no mining."

"The density of the population in the state is only 20.7 persons to the square mile, and 70.8 per cent of the population reside outside of towns of 2,500 population or more. The climate, while showing extremes of temperature, is usually mild enough to permit much outdoor work and open windows."

"But it is to the people themselves that we must look for those minor and subtle qualities that make for better and longer living. Kansas is rich, her per capita wealth is great and the people are enabled to live well, to clothe themselves properly, to have comfortable homes and to load their tables with nourishing foods."

"Kansas is a prohibition state, and in Kansas prohibition really prohibits. I do not mean by this that there is no alcohol consumed in the state, but the absence of the saloon means much to our growing young men, who in the absence of the barroom find more healthful pastimes than loafing in an alcohol laden atmosphere."

John Moses, who has been in ill health, continues to show improvement.

HUDSON SUPER-SIX

(Patented December 28, 1915)

76 Horse Power

¶ The Super-Six—a Hudson invention—has come to claim the sovereign place in motors. ¶ With six little cylinders it develops 76-h. p. That's 80% more than other like-size Sixes. ¶ It has broken all records in quick acceleration. ¶ In official test, a stock car has made 72¾ miles in an hour. ¶ The marvel is, we attain this result with six small cylinders. ¶ They were made to yield nearly double power—to outdo Eights and Twelves. And they've done that by ending vibration. ¶ So the Super-Six is utterly quiet. The car seems to move by magic. It has amazing flexibility. And it has, in addition, this wealth of reserve power.

HATED TO LEAVE ABANDONED DEAD

Australians And New Zealanders,
Returning to London, Describe
Conditions on Peninsula.

GRAVES MARKED WITH CROSS

Armistice Was Once Declared so
That Both Sides Could Bury
The Dead, Many to Return

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Jan. 8.—(By Mail) Australians and New Zealanders are drifting into London since the abandonment of the British positions on Gallipoli peninsula. In London tea rooms, on street corners and elsewhere the tanned, burly Australians, the dusky Maoris and lighter complexioned New Zealanders meet.

They talk a great deal among themselves about the abandoned dead. "It wasn't leaving the place that hurt; it's the thought of a fellow's best friends buried in those gullies and ravines," said an Anzac fighter today. He talked about the appalling number of casualties suffered by the Anzacs; of lonely cemeteries under the cliffs, and in Shrapnel Gully; of burials under cover of darkness to escape the enemy's fire and of midnight funeral services where the officiating priest or clergyman could be heard and not seen.

Almost everyone of the thousands of graves at Anzac is marked with a cross—sometimes bearing a name, but more often reading, "To the Memory of Fifty Australians," or "To the Memory of Fifty New Zealanders." To the Maoris it was not so hard to leave their dead. They believe the place where a dead man lies is sacred; watched over by spirits who would do evil to intruders. Grotesque wooden idols with sea shell eyes perch garishly on sticks above the graves of the Maori warriors.

The true spirit of humanity which animates the Turks in their fighting is shown in the stories of the Anzacs. An instance of this was shown in May when both sides agreed to a burial armistice. An imaginary line was drawn through No Man's Land between the trenches and pickets from both sides patrolled it while searching parties from both scoured the underbrush of the hills and hollows.

The Turks brought the Christian dead to the line, the Anzacs doing likewise with the slain Mohammedans. Religious rites were hurriedly observed on both sides as the bodies were placed in hastily dug trenches. Crosses were erected and the armistice came to an end. It is this spirit on the part of the Turk that makes the Anzacs believe that the last resting places of their dead, crosses, inscriptions and all, will not be molested. Hundreds of Anzacs will go back there after the war to visit the silent graves. It is declared not improbable that all the crosses marking the thousands of graves will be replaced by more durable markings of stone to forever commemorate the memory of the dead.

PEACE CAUSING QUEER QUIRKS

Roger Bresnahan Gets $30,000 For Next Two Years Regardless of Where he Plays.

JOE TINKER'S FAT CHANCE

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Roger Bresnahan holds the most unique position in baseball today. He's got a job and he hasn't. He gets $30,000 for the next two years, regardless. Bresnahan's situation is one of the queer tangles caused by the planned cessation of the baseball war. When Charlie Weegham, former Federal league magnate, bought Charlie Taft's Cubs, he said Joe Tinker would manage the club. But Weegham didn't say what he was going to do with the former manager, nor whether there was any stipulation regarding Bresnahan, in the bill of sale. Roger Bresnahan probably will be shipped to Toledo.

This is a great year for baseball comeback's. Joe Tinker, Cub cast-off, who worried his way through a season of managing the Cincinnati Reds and then made the jump that the Chifeds, comes back with a vengeance to the job of piloting the Cub players who guffawed when Joe was let out by Murphy. But the real comeback is Fielder Jones, one of the miracle men of baseball, who led the White Sox hitless wonders to their lone world pennant. Fielder will enter the big leagues again with the amalgamated St. Louis Browns and Sloufeds. Jones has accomplished two feats that put him in a lone class: he led the mediocre bunch to a world's pennant, then last season took a bunch of Sloufeds and made them over into pennant contenders, which they certainly had not been.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a pure remedy containing the extractive properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, meets the needs of woman's system at this critical period of her life. Try it.

If there is any symptom in your case which puzzles you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

TO SPEND THREE DAYS IN WAYNE

James E. Watson Will Conduct Campaign in County North of Here
February 7, 8 and 9.

ITINERARY IS ANNOUNCED

Will Hold Night Meetings During Campaign in Cambridge City, Hagerstown and Richmond.

Richmond, Ind., Jan. 28.—James E. Watson, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, expects to be in the county, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 7, 8 and 9 and to make a number of campaign speeches here and in many of the towns of the county, according to announcement made today by L. P. Meredith, who is managing his campaign in the following itinerary:

Monday, Feb. 7.—Centerville, East Germantown, Milton, Dublin, and Cambridge City.

Tuesday, Feb. 8.—Greensfork, Economy, Fountain City, Williamsburg and Hagerstown.

Wednesday, Feb. 9.—Boston, probably Abington and Whitewater, and Richmond.

Meredith said that Watson expects to spend two hours or more in each town. His evening meetings at Cambridge City, Hagerstown and this city will be the more important. It is probable that he will engage the K. of P. temple on South Eighth street for his evening meeting here. On Wednesday noon, he expects to visit several factories and make short talks.

His travels over the county will be in an automobile. Mr. Meredith says he expects Mr. Watson will be accompanied by many candidates on the county ticket, who will take this means of meeting the voters in furtherance of their own candidacies.

disfranchised and rendered incapable of holding any office of trust or profit for any determinate period."

The term "legal qualifications of a voter" is defined in section 10 and all hinges on the construction placed on the section by the supreme court. The section makes no distinction as to who shall challenge persons attempting to vote in the primary.

The committee of three attorneys, a Democrat, Republican and Progressive, appointed by Governor Ralston to interpret the primary law, such interpretation being accepted by the parties as authority for work this year, included in their report the provision that only a member of the party at which the voter attempted to vote in the primary could issue a challenge.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

FEDERAL AGENTS AFTER ROBBERS

Believe That Gang of Revenue Stamp Thieves Operate from Chicago and That "Fence" Exists.

TWO BIG DEALS PUT ACROSS

Show Discrimination by Taking Only Those of Negotiable Type—Visited Evansville.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Federal agents here and at Indianapolis and St. Paul believe that the clever band of robbers who are specializing on negotiable revenue stamps are operating with this city as their base. The robbers doubtless have a "fence" here who gets a large share of the profits in return for disposing of the second hand stamps.

The two big deals put over by the revenue stamp thieves were at Evansville, Ind., and at St. Paul, Minn. At both places the robbers left their instruments behind, and in both instances the tools were identical. In both cities the robbers had prepared with a high power automobile and in both instances they made a dash in the direction of Chicago.

The men who did the work at Evansville were traced nearly to Chicago. When other plans failed they stole the machine of a wealthy Evansville man, and the peculiarities of this machine aided in the chase.

Because of the difficulties experienced in disposing of the second-hand revenue stamps, it is believed that the "fence" must be in a position of considerable consequence, possibly in the federal service, itself. Federal agents believe that the "fence" get more than 50 per cent of the profits.

At St. Paul, the thieves got stamps worth nearly $900,000 and at Evansville, the booty was worth $15,000. The thieves show discrimination, taking war stamps that are salable and disregarding the non-negotiable type.

Don't Take A Chance

Rushville People Should Act in Time.

If you suffer from backache; If you have headaches, dizzy spells

If the kidney secretions are irregular,

Don't delay—likely your kidneys are sick.

Rushville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here's a Rushville man's experience:

M. Conner, cigar mfg., 1001 N. Harrison St., Rushville, says:

"I had backaches and pains through my kidneys. My kidneys were irregular in action. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the pain in my back and regulated the kidney action."

The above statement was given on July 22, 1912, and on Aug. 25, 1915, Mr. Conner said: "I haven't had occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills since giving my former endorsement, telling what they did for me. I believe the cure is permanent."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Conner has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WHO ARE AUTHORS OF PATRIOTIC SONGS?

New York, Jan. 28.—From date just gathered by the Metropolitan Opera company, these facts are learned about patriotic songs familiar to nearly everyone:

The national song of the French, the "Marseillaise," was composed by Rouget de Lisle, a captain of engineers quartered at Strasburg when the volunteers of the Bas Rhin received orders to join Luckner's army. They had no music, but at the suggestion of Dietrich, the mayor of Strasburg, De Lisle composed this song on the night of April 24, 1792. It was subsequently sung in Marseilles with immense success, hence its name. The song as it stands is the greatest revolutionary hymn in the world. The French government recently transferred the body of Rouget de Lisle (who suffered imprisonment for his revolutionary opinion during his lifetime) to the Palace des Invalides with great pomp and ceremony.

The music of "Deutschland über alles" was written by Haydn in 1797. The present words were not written until 1841, by Hoffman von Fallersleben. At that time Germany was not united into an empire as it is today.

The "Wacht am Rhein" was written by Max Schreckenberger, an obscure Swabian merchant, and the music was by Carl Wilhelm. The song became popular during the Franco-German war.

The national hymn of Austria was composed by Haydn and is known as the "Emperor's Hymn."

The words of the "Star-Spangled Banner" were written by Francis Scott Key, an American prisoner on a British man-o'-war during the bombardment of Fort M'Henry in 1814. The melody is an old English drinking song.

The words of "Yankee Doodle" were probably written by a Dr. Shuckburgh, a surgeon in the French and Indian wars. Halliday, the antiquarian, asserts the melody is derived from a chant used in the Italian churches of the twelfth century. It is well known that the song was a vintage song in France and Spain, and a song of the reapers in Holland. It is also said to be founded on a jig of 1745, known as "Kitty Fisher's Jig." The Cavaliers are said to have used it in ridicule of Cromwell just as the British used it against the Americans.

The origin of "America"—the tune of "God Save the King" in England and "Heil dir in Sieges Kranz" in Germany—is in doubt, though it is often ascribed to Dr. John Bull, an Englishman. It is also ascribed to Henry Carey.

The Russian national anthem, "God Protect the Czar," is one of the most majestic of hymns. It was composed by Colonel Alexis, an officer in the Russian army, in 1832, to words by the poet Jonkowsky. It is probably the only inspired national song ever "written to order."

SHOOT AT CHARLIE

(By United Press.)
Northern France—A wooden effigy of Charlie Chaplin looted from the front of a picture show in Yorkshire and brought to France is daily hoisted up over one of the trenches to the fury of the Germans who subject Charlie to severe bombardment. One bombardment lasted two hours and resulted in little material damage.

JOSEPH A. STEVENS, Trustee of Jackson Township.

TODAY'S ODDST STORY.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 28.—W. J. De La Mars of Roblin, Man., is to leave here for Washington, to perfect, he says, 40 airships with which he claims he can destroy Berlin in a day. Each airship, he claims, will carry nine tons of nitro-glycerine and 30 barrels of gasoline, will be able to travel 150 miles an hour and stay in the air 36 days. He says he will build 20 airships at Washington for the British navy. The other twenty will protect North American shores.

"Treasure Island," the dramatization of which has been made by Jules Eckert Goddman, as it will be presented by Charles Hopkins at the Shubert Murat Theatre, Indianapolis, all next week, beginning Monday, Jan. 31st. matinee Wednesday and Saturday, is undoubtedly the most elaborate and ambitious scenic production of the season. In fact, the marvelously beautiful effect of the settings have been likened to the rich colorings of Maxfield Parrish and the costumes of the twenty-four characters seem as though each one had stepped from a group of Howard Pyle's paintings.

The play opens in the Admiral Ben Bow Inn where we see Capt. Bill Bones bullying the villagers into singing his famous, "Fifteen men on a dead man's chest, yo-ho-ho and a bottle of rum," the fight between Black Dog and Bill Bones, Blind Pow giving the Black Spot to Bill Bones, the latter's death after bequeathing his much wanted chart, "Flint's First," to little John Hopkins, the sacking of the inn, the planning of the expedition.

The second act is on the quay at Bristol with the good ship Hispaniola at the dock, we see saue, villainous Long John Silver come from his Sailor's Inn with his parrot, Capt. Flint, perched on his shoulder and screaming "pieces of eight," we watch him engage the pirate crew and see the sailing of the ship.

Next comes the mutiny on board the Hispaniola; Jim Hawkins finding the marooned Ben Gunn on Treasure Island, the fight in the stockade; the Hispaniola adrift when Jim shoots the treacherous Isreal Hands and saves the ship; the pirates camp; Spyglass Mountain, where the buccaneers find the skeleton and dig for the buried treasure only to find it gone, and finally the treasure itself glittering like a warm fire light in Ben Gunn's cave, with a beautiful vista of the sea through the distant entrance.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative. Hargrove & Mullin.

EXTENSIVE AUTO SERVICE PLANNED

Overland Route Out of Huntington

Will Make All Towns Within

Radius of 25 Miles

STATION BEING ERECTED

(By United Press.)

Huntington, Jan. 28.—An overland system of automobile transportation passenger service which will be one of the most complete systems in the state, will go into operation here as soon as the cars arrive from the factory. The plans of the company are to take in all towns within a radius of about twenty-five miles of Huntington. Officials of the company say they will be able to furnish as rapid service as the steam or electric lines and that the tracks will be so constructed as to make them cleaner and more comfortable than the other means of transportation. A very attractive little station is being constructed in the heart of the city.

W. R. Jinnett, candidate for the Republican nomination for representative from this county, is confined to his home in Manila with gripe and is unable to do any campaigning.

Your Successful Neighbors

Many of your neighbors have prospered and seem to have funds of their own and to command more when they need them in carrying out their plans. How do they manage it?

Undoubtedly, in practically every case, their banking relations have been a large factor in their comfortable circumstances. The man who uses his bank as the bank wants him to use it, has a powerful ally working with him.

The Rush County National Bank especially desires to place its facilities at the disposal of serious minded people of modest resources, with a view to aiding in their financial growth.

Tooth Loose? Watch out for Pyorrhea!

When you find a tooth that gives back and forth, even just a little, see your dentist at once.

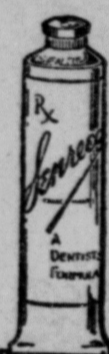

He will find conditions which you might overlook. He will find a gum recession, even though slight, where the gums have pulled away from the teeth. And he will tell you that you have the dread disease pyorrhea.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentinal Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

STORIES FROM WAR FRONT

By ALICE ROHE
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Rome, Dec. 26.—(By Mail) Italy's boys in the trenches had a royal Christmas. Best of all their Christmas gifts was Christmas dinner in steam heated trenches. With their modern trench improvements they had the best of it over some of the girls they left behind them. For sunny Italy has the coldest interiors and the poorest heating facilities in all the world. In the trenches however; up where the snow is heavy and the rains are freezing in the mountains, the steam heated trenches are driving away the terrors of a winter campaign.

The sending of gifts to soldiers at the front was one of the most touching of all Christmas activities. Everyone wanted to send something. A poorly clad woman entered one of the stations where special boxes of sweets, ready for sending to soldiers, were on sale. She had only sixteen soldi. The boxes were one franc fifty.

"I'll buy something," she said. "I've no one at the front now. My boy's fallen at Col di Lana but I want to send some little comfort to some other mother's boy." She bought a small package of sweets for sixteen cents and some mother's boy must have felt a different quality in that dearly purchased remembrance.

The order that chocolate and sweets could not be sent privately to soldiers at the front caused such a wail that parliament decided to change the order. The order had been given because of the fear that poisoned sweets from suspicious and concealed quarters might reach the soldiers. Enough evidence had come to the ears of the authorities to warrant this action. It was this same fear that resulted in the public cigar and cigarette collection stations being abandoned. The opportunity for enemies sending poisoned cigars or cigarettes offered too strong a temptation to evil minds.

The discovery of poisoned tobacco brought the decisive order. Thousands of cigars were destroyed and the order was that thenceforth only money would be accepted to buy cigars from government supply stores.

At Christmas time the bars were down for chocolate and sweets. In the face of Christmas sentiment, wives and children, law and precaution stepped aside. And the rush of bundles of candy and chocolate of tobacco and all sorts of presents, has appalled the postal clerks.

Rome, Italy, Jan. 6.—(By Mail) War, which has boomed almost every industry in the world has put the Italian pawnshop not on the boom but on the bum. The Italian women say this has happened because their soldier husbands are not at home to spend their money for drink and the wives can use the government pay to take care of the family instead of pawning everything in sight. Hard times for the people are supposed to make good times for the pawnbroker, but whatever other trials and miseries the war is inflicting upon Italian wives, mothers and sweethearts, it has lessened rather than increased the financial worries. Pawnbrokers in Rome alone report a slump of hundreds of thousands of dollars in business. Most of these are government controlled pawnshops and before the war their portals were among the most frequented in all Italy. The government allowance to wives and families amounts to only a few cents a day, but the Italian women have learned frugality in a hard school and they know their lesson well. Not only are most of them taking care of their families, but many of them are scratching and saving enough soldi to redeem some of the pledged household articles. "Of course I can manage when everything doesn't go for wine," said the wife of a workman. "A lire a day from the government and the fifty centimes a day I make from sewing is a lire and a half more than I had when my man was home. Bread and soup and a little cheese—what more does one want? My children and I manage very well."

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you

Preparedness is uppermost in the minds of the people of the United States, with congress discussing it, so it was this timely topic that George I. Christie, head of the extension department of Purdue university, chose for his address at the farmers banquet Wednesday night, at the Graham Annex building gymnasium, which was the closing and crowning feature of the farmers short course.

One hundred and twenty-five persons sat down to the heavily laden tables. The banquet was served by the girls of the domestic science classes, in charge of Miss Kate Dennis, and went off as smoothly as if a professional caterer were on the job. Unfettered praise was given the very thing that was being discussed at the banquet.

Country life topics were discussed intelligently and interestingly by the speakers who responded to toasts. Half of the men at the banquet tables were farmers. Samuel L. Trabue, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided as the toastmaster, introducing each speaker with appropriate words.

"Preparedness is more important than in the days of George Washington," said Mr. Christie. "We know that we do not have enough men and officers to go up against the armies of the other countries—and we hope and pray that we shall never have to face them—but the call that is coming from the great chief of this nation is not that your son shall go into battle, but that he shall be prepared."

"The factor of food is playing a greater part in the conflict than any other—it is greater than men and arms. England has only two weeks' supply of food, and if a blanket could be thrown about her to cut off her imports, her people would starve. The problem that is staring Germany in the face is how her people are going to get three meals a day."

"The problem, then, in our country, is how the working men are going to get three meals a day at prices they can pay. Our population doubles every twenty-five years and as consumption increases, we are wanting to know whether we can

The music at the farmers banquet was a pleasing feature. The program was given from the west side of the running track above the gymnasium floor. There were violin solos by Miss Gladys Tittsworth and Miss Janet Dean, a vocal solo by Miss Helen Scott, a cornet solo by Harry Lucas and a vocal duet by Miss Esther Anderson and Miss Mary Louise Poe. The efforts of the entertainers were loudly applauded.

The instructors at the short course all of whom were special guests at the banquet, praised warmly the entertainment they had received here. They said they had nearly always enjoyed social functions wherever they went, but none equaled what Rushville's hospitality offered. The committee responsible for the banquet—John A. Tittsworth, E. R. Cassidy and G. P. Hunt—worked under great difficulties because tables, stoves and dishes had to be provided. E. J. Knecht and H. S. Havens worked hard selling tickets for the banquet.

Professor Christie quoted export figures to show that this country is gradually consuming more and more of its crops, until the point has been reached where consumption is very little smaller than production in all crops excepting wheat. Taking into consideration all factors, he said he was inclined to believe this country is not increasing as fast as its consumption, which makes this problem one of the present and not the future.

"So agriculture is a barometer of the progress and prosperity of the people," he continued. "It is possible to increase our agricultural land only nine percent and the only hope we have left is to get it from the soil we have. We are all inclined to believe that this cry of back to the land is a 1916 slogan, but men of the days before Christ realized

George I. Christie, head of the extension department of Purdue university, complimented Rushville on its new school building at the beginning of his address at the farmers banquet at the Graham Annex last night.

"I don't know of any better building in Indiana," said Mr. Christie. "I do not know of anything that promises more for the benefit of the young people and as a social center for the community than does this beautiful and well appointed building."

"In our towns and in other towns as well, we have gone down into our pockets and dug up as much as $75,000 to build a Y. M. C. A. building. That was done in Lafayette, Crawfordville and a number of other places. When you have in this building all things combined as they are—a fine gymnasium, a place for banquets, a fine auditorium and moving picture machine, you have something better than a Y. M. C. A."

Farmers Attention Called to Low Germination of 1914 Clover

Attention of farmers is called to the low germination of the 1914 clover seed crop and those in touch with the situation say that seed must be put on much thicker than usual if farmers want a stand this year. Prof. Harry Mahin of the Arlington schools recently conducted a test for germination. Children gathered samples of reclaimed seed for the work. The highest germination shown was 86 and the lowest 44, making an average of 44 for all samples.

COUNTY LOWEST IN DELINQUENCY

Of 46 Counties on Which Reports Have Been Received, Rush Has Fewer Delinquent Taxes

MOST OF IT FROM THE CITY

The amount of delinquent taxes in Rush county advertised by the county auditor totals only $464.83. It is gleaned from the reports of forty-six counties received here Rush county is the lowest. Probably two-thirds of the delinquency is from the City of Rushville. The amount would have been very small but for the delinquent sewer and sidewalk assessments submitted to the county treasurer by the city treasurer.

Exactly twelve pieces of property are advertised for sale to satisfy the taxes. The largest single item is $135.25. This is the taxes on a piece of property in Rushville for a public improvement. The delinquent tax sale will be held on Monday, February 14.

GAS IS WASTED IN LEAKING MAINS

State Gas Inspector, After Visit Here, Says he Will Enforce Law in This Respect

BAD LEAK IN STORM SEWER

Rushville and Rush county sustains a heavy loss every day because of faulty gas mains and the piping at the gas wells, according to Floyd Wright, state gas inspector. The state gas inspector was here yesterday in conference with John Wallace, deputy inspector, and an examination of several natural gas mains revealed many bad leaks.

It is against the state law to permit gas leaks. A bad leak was found in the old storm sewer running parallel with the Pennsylvania railroad in the northern part of the city. The lines of three gas companies pass through this sewer, and according to Mr. Wright, all of the companies will be notified to find the leak. The law regarding gas leaks applies to private lines and private wells as well as the corporations. Prosecutions are sure to follow if the leaks are not stopped, it is stated. The intention of the law is to conserve the gas. Mr. Wright stated that the supply here is being greatly diminished through carelessness in not attending to the leaky mains.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Allen have moved into a suite of rooms in the home of Mrs. Libbie Hackleman in North Harrison street.

Holland Decree Forbids Future Exportation of Rubber

(By United Press.)
The Hague, Jan. 27.—A royal decree was issued today forbidding the future exportation of rubber. Its aim was to cut off exports to Germany. Great Britain will reciprocate by ordering no further interferences with shipments of rubber to Holland. In the past rubber cargoes have been held up until it was proved conclusively that they were not consigned to German agents in Holland.

Although Bills Are Not in, Those in Charge Say Receipts of $96.25 Will Not Meet Them

ATTENDANCE BELOW AVERAGE

The gross receipts of the farmers short course, which closed Wednesday afternoon, amounted to $96.25. Although the bills are not all in, those in charge are confident that the short course did not pay its way. All bills will be paid by the Chamber of Commerce, and whatever the deficiency will be met by the Chamber.

The season tickets sold numbered 162 and single admissions amounted to $14.25. The heaviest expense was the board and lodging of the eight instructors here from Purdue. The other expenses consisted of rental for rooms, feeding the live stock and equipment for the various departments. The railroads furnish the instructors passes and a car for the live stocks free of charge.

The attendance was not up to the standard here. Many believe the bad condition of the roads was responsible for many not attending.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Four boy bandits today stuck up the cashier and 30 other persons, including Jake Stahl, former baseball star, in the Washington Park national bank and escaped with between $12,000 and $13,000 in cash.

Stahl is vice-president of the bank. The bandits, none of whom appeared to be over twenty years of age, drove up to the bank in a small automobile shortly before nine o'clock.

They warned the six or seven customers outside the railing to stand back, forced all the employees to hold up their hands and directed the paying teller and cashier to open the safe.

SEEK TO CHANGE ROUTE OF ROAD

W. A. Alexander And Eleven Others' Effort to Relocate Highway is Contested in Court

ONCE UP TO COMMISSIONERS

Plaintiffs Allege Damages Assessed in Lower Court Were Not Equal to Advantages Gained

The highway case of William A. Alexander, et al., against William E. Harton, et al., started today in the circuit court before Special Judge Fred Gause of Newcastle and a jury. The start of the case attracted a large crowd to the court house. It has been several years since a case of this kind created as much interest.

The plaintiffs in the action, Alexander and eleven other petitioners are seeking to vacate and re-locate a portion of the road commonly known as the "Greenfield road." Under the proposed change the road would be opened through the Alexander farm on the north line and the Harton farm on the south line. The change in the road would make it run east and west instead of as located at present.

W. A. Alexander was the first witness. The first part of his testimony was regarding the record of the case as started in the commissioners' court. He testified as to the posting of notices and other things as record evidence. About one hundred witnesses are called in this case and the neighborhood affected by the proposed change in the road is about evenly divided on the proposed change. Under the proposed change Alexander would receive about an acre and one-half of land included in that portion of the road now in use.

The petition for the change in the road was filed by Alexander in 1913 and was signed by twelve men, as provided by law. Included in the list of signers were the names of Lieu Oneal, James Shanahan, Thomas A. Jones, Herschel Daubenspeck, Homer Powell, E. O. Humes, L. B. Miller, John D. Hiner, Homer Gatewood and George W. Looney, Jr.

Before the petition was heard a remonstrance was filed, headed by William Harton. The remonstrators asked for some damages because they maintained that the benefits from the proposed opening of the road would not equal the damages. The commissioners awarded some damages and ordered the road built. The petitioners were not satisfied to pay the damages and took an appeal. The case as it is now being tried is really a hearing once more on whether the road should be changed.

The petitioners maintain that the road changed would be shortened and would be a public utility. The controversy over the proposed change in the highway has been hanging fire in the circuit court for over two years. The remonstrators allege that the old road is good enough and that it has been established for at least thirty years. The change in the road would cost about $4,000. The remonstrators desire that the present road be improved under the three-mile road law and that no change in the route be made.

The testimony will deal for the most part with the travel on the highway and the benefits and damages to the parties involved if the change is made. Before the case is completed the jury will be taken to the scene of the proposed change in the highway. This request was granted by the court.

Considerable difficulty was had in

Go Down in Rio Grande When Pelted With Bullets by Mexicans Meeting Onrush of Troopers

(By United Press.)
Brownsville, Texas, Jan. 27.—Lieutenant J. E. Mort, commanding battery D, Fourth field artillery, and Lieutenants Payton and Waldron, of the same detachment, were placed under arrest in Progreso, Texas, today, charged with leading fourteen of their men into Mexico to rescue two American soldiers who were captured by Mexicans.

They were arrested on orders of Major General Funston who reiterated that he had issued specific orders that no soldier should cross into Mexico under any circumstances.

Four of Mort's men were drowned while swimming the Rio Grande under a cross fire from Mexican and American troops. The Mexicans were not in uniform.

CONFIRMED IN CAPITAL

(By United Press.)
Washington, Jan. 27.—The war department today received a dispatch from General Funston on the border confirming the report that two American soldiers were captured by armed Mexicans and four others drowned in the Rio Grande when they were fired upon while swimming—and that three officers were arrested for leading their men into Mexico.

Press reports, officials here said, gave no occasion for undue excitement, though it was thought possible it might provoke another outbreak in congress.

Word from Morristown stated that there was reason to believe that they came to this city. No reason was given for their leaving home. Chief Rosencrane was looking for the boys at a late hour today.

The start of the case attracted a large crowd to the court house. It has been several years since a case of this kind created as much interest.

The plaintiffs in the action, Alexander and eleven other petitioners are seeking to vacate and re-locate a portion of the road commonly known as the "Greenfield road." Under the proposed change the road would be opened through the Alexander farm on the north line and the Harton farm on the south line. The change in the road would make it run east and west instead of as located at present.

W. A. Alexander was the first witness. The first part of his testimony was regarding the record of the case as started in the commissioners' court. He testified as to the posting of notices and other things as record evidence. About one hundred witnesses are called in this case and the neighborhood affected by the proposed change in the road is about evenly divided on the proposed change. Under the proposed change Alexander would receive about an acre and one-half of land included in that portion of the road now in use.

The petition for the change in the road was filed by Alexander in 1913 and was signed by twelve men, as provided by law. Included in the list of signers were the names of Lieut. Oneal, James Shanahan, Thomas A. Jones, Herschel Daubenspeck, Homer Powell, E. O. Humes, L. B. Miller, John D. Hiner, Homer Gatewood and George W. Looney, Jr.

Before the petition was heard a remonstrance was filed, headed by William Harton. The remonstrators asked for some damages because they maintained that the benefits from the proposed opening of the road would not equal the damages. The commissioners awarded some damages and ordered the road built. The petitioners were not satisfied to pay the damages and took an appeal. The case as it is now being tried is really a hearing once more on whether the road should be changed.

The petitioners maintain that the road changed would be shortened and would be a public utility. The controversy over the proposed change in the highway has been hanging fire in the circuit court for over two years. The remonstrators allege that the old road is good enough and that it has been established for at least thirty years. The change in the road would cost about $4,000. The remonstrators desire that the present road be improved under the three-mile road law and that no change in the route be made.

The testimony will deal for the most part with the travel on the highway and the benefits and damages to the parties involved if the change is made. Before the case is completed the jury will be taken to the scene of the proposed change in the highway. This request was granted by the court.

ARRESTED FOR CROSSING RIVER

Three U. S. Lieutenants Are Held by Authorities For Leading Their Men Into Mexico

FOUR SOLDIERS DROWNED

Go Down in Rio Grande When Pefted With Bullets by Mexicans Meeting Onrush of Troopers

(By United Press.)
Brownsville, Texas, Jan. 27.—Lieutenant J. E. Mort, commanding battery D, Fourth field artillery, and Lieutenants Payton and Waldron, of the same detachment, were placed under arrest in Progreso, Texas, today, charged with leading fourteen of their men into Mexico to rescue two American soldiers who were captured by Mexicans.

They were arrested on orders of Major General Funston who reiterated that he had issued specific orders that no soldier should cross into Mexico under any circumstances.

Four of Mort's men were drowned while swimming the Rio Grande under a cross fire from Mexican and American troops. The Mexicans were not in uniform.

CONFIRMED IN CAPITAL

(By United Press.)
Washington, Jan. 27.—The war department today received a dispatch from General Funston on the border confirming the report that two American soldiers were captured by armed Mexicans and four others drowned in the Rio Grande when they were fired upon while swimming—and that three officers were arrested for leading their men into Mexico.

Press reports, officials here said, gave no occasion for undue excitement, though it was thought possible it might provoke another outbreak in congress.

LOOK FOR RUNAWAY BOYS

Police Notified Two Morristown Youths Are Coming Here

The police received word this afternoon to be on the lookout for two boys, Ora Catt and Arthur Wagoner, missing from Morristown. The boys were last seen this morning when they started for school. They did not arrive at school and when they did not come home at noon their parents became alarmed and started to investigate. Ring Out the Old Ring in the New

The luxuries of yesterday are the necessities of to-day.

Our wants increase as we grow—as our tastes grow finer.

We must keep abreast of the times—if possible ahead of them. We must know.

And if we are to be informed we must read—and above all else we must read the advertising.

It is the harbinger of progress. The voice of the "new" that comes with the news in your favorite daily newspaper.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it, before breakfast.

"To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean, almost every morning, to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furred tongue, nasty breath or stomach becomes rancid, it's your liver. Sallow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes, all denote liver uncleanness. Your liver is the most important, also the most abused, and neglected organ of the body. Few know its function or how to release the dammed-up body waste, bile and toxins. Most folks resort to violent calomel, which is a dangerous, salivating chemical which can only be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues, also attacks the bones.

Every man and woman, sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, to wash from the liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, the poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel, because it can not salivate, for it is harmless and you can eat anything afterwards. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, and any pharmacist will sell you a quarter pound, which is sufficient for a demonstration of how hot water and limestone phosphate cleans, stimulates and freshens the liver, keeping you feeling fit day in and day out.

Try Simple Remedy

Many Rushville people are surprised at the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE TEASPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing. F. E. Wolcott, druggist (Advertisement.)

VEGETABLE
CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulant, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podophyllin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Santanel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. Another Scheme

Despite the fact that the exchange rates show a heavy depreciation in the value of the German mark and the Austrian crown, Secretary McAdoo and Director of the Mint Wooley, whose function it is under the law to proclaim foreign values every quarter, refuse to take official notice of these falling values. It is a matter of common knowledge that the coins referred to have depreciated in value, but Secretary McAdoo denies that any depreciation exists. The reason is simple. The Treasury is in a horrible state, and Secretary McAdoo is engaging in every trickery known to a politician to raise the greatest amount of revenue possible, regardless of fair play. Importers of German and Austrian goods have repeatedly called attention of the Treasury Department to the depreciated condition of currency of the Central Powers, as evidenced by the decline in the exchange rates, but they are still subjected to the hardships accompanying the liquidation of duties based on the normal exchange values. Having inflated the treasury balance, Mr. McAdoo finds it an easy matter to inflate exchange rates.

Why even speak of Mexico, when speaking appears to be all that have the courage to do?

ATTRACTS NOTICE AS SMALL FARMER

Twenty-Acre Track of Land Produces Valuable Crop For Nebraska Man—Gets Prizes

IS NATIVE OF SWITZERLAND

(By United Press.)

Table Rock, Neb., Jan. 27.—Arnold Martin, a former Swiss farmer who resides near here, has attracted international attention as a twenty-acre farmer. Recently at Denver he won prizes in every class, but the thing about which Mr. Martin is most pleased and proud is that corn he raised was selected by the Chinese commissioner at the Panama Pacific exposition to be sent to China, where, under the supervision of the Chinese government experts, the seed is to be propagated, acclimated and adopted.

There are few small farms in this locality, many of them running 160 and even 640 acres. Mr. Martin received his training as a small acreage farmer in Switzerland, and he finds no difficulty in making twenty acres pay and pay well, besides getting prize taking crops.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading; gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Tom Hendricks

THE country newspaper has been a prolific breeding place for statesmen, politicians (there's a fine distinction between the two), poets, philosophers and humorists. Many of the leading platform men of today have come up through the medium of paste pot, scissiors and pencil. Of these Tom Hendricks is a conspicuous example.

Some call him a humorist. A vein of homely humor runs through all he says. His original way of phrasing jars a laugh out of his audience here and there, and once in awhile the roof is raised. Yet he is essentially serious in all he says and in his way of saying it.

Some call him a philosopher. A rugged, grass roots philosophy shines through his discourse, but it is the philosophy of the ordinary man, old as time, yet restated freshly and happily. Its appeal is to the ninety and nine who have never strayed into "highbrow" pastures rather than to the one who has gone astray from the common herd.

Some call him a preacher. There is the sound basis for mental and moral growth that is the glory of the sermon in all he says, yet he's never preachy. He sermonizes in the language of the street, and folks never know they've been preached at, to or about.

His lectures have been pronounced a combination of joy ride and sermon.

PREACHERS HEAD THE LIST

Approximately $22,127 Will Have Been Earned by Time Term Closes This Year

(By United Press.)
Greencastle, Jan. 27.—Nearly one-half of the men attending De Pauw university are earning at least part of their way through school. Before the school year closes they will have earned approximately $22,127.50.

This is a substance of a report just issued by Chairman Daniel Lavengood of the employment bureau of the college Y. M. C. A. The report contained a complete survey of the labor situation at De Pauw. Out of 341 men enrolled at the university, says the report, 151, or 44.3 per cent are earning at least a part of their expenses in school.

Student preachers head the list of self-supporting students, and the amount they earn per capita also is the largest. Eighteen preachers are earning an average $361 per year. There are 57 waiters earning an average of $64.74; ten stewards averaging $144.60; eight dishwashers averaging $105.75; seven clerks, averaging $117.14; six bellboys averaging $119.66; four newspaper carriers averaging $101; two librarians averaging $128; four stenographers averaging $52.50; three newspaper reporters averaging $81; and 13 doing odd jobs and averaging $74.31. The general average is $127.90 per year. Stenographers get the smallest pay of all, $52.50. Several lines of activity are not listed. One student often runs the movie machine at a local theatre and others are engaged in collecting laundry.

A great many women are earning part of their way through college, but no statistics are available. A similar report on the amounts spent by various college students is being prepared.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking
an Outlet Through Skin
Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

Several people from this city are planning to attend the party at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis tomorrow evening, for which invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hamilton. Their nephew Nicholas Vachel Lindsay, the poet, will be the guest of honor and will furnish the evening's entertainment with a recital of his poem's. Those from this city who are planning to attend are Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Muazy, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Riggs, the Misses Leonora and Alice Norris, and Mr. and Mrs. Anslin Frazee, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Frazee.

"Bernard Shaw" was the fruitful subject which furnished such an interesting program at the Shakespeare Club, Tuesday evening, when it was entertained by the Misses Katherine Petry, Lois Fritter and Edith Caldwell at the home of Miss Petry. A very interesting sketch of Shaw's life was given by Miss Caldwell, after which Miss Petry read several clippings bearing upon the work of Shaw. A review of some of his most interesting plays was given by Miss Fritter. Discussions were also brought up, on how Shaw's work has been received, his life's efforts, and his success. Letters of able critics to Mr. Shaw were read, giving a clear insight into his work. The program was preparatory to the lecture to be given next Tuesday by Prof. Jenkins on "Shaw, the Socialist." Aside from furnishing the program, the hostesses made the social hour especially pleasant by serving a tempting collation to the fourteen guests.

BAND OF WORKERS

An unusually large attendance marked the meeting of the Band of Workers of the First Presbyterian church which was held at the home of Mrs. J. T. Arbuckle yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Lon Link and Miss Laura Meredith as assisting hostesses. The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Arbuckle was a delightful setting for the crowd of forty-seven that enjoyed the meeting. The president, Mrs. Janetta Carr, presided over a business meeting, during which it was decided that the first section of the society will hold a rummage sale on Saturday, February 5th. The members also enjoyed a pleasant social time during which light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Oneal were pleasantly surprised last evening, when honoring their thirtieth wedding anniversary a number of their friends had planned a party and came in to spend the evening with them. The thirty guests had a merry evening, made especially so with the euchre games in which they all participated and played with lively spirit. The refreshments, which they had brought with them were served near the close of the evening and were greatly enjoyed.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Miss Anna Mary Cowan was hostess for the Young Ladies Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, when an especially interesting program made the meeting unusually delightful. Mrs. Edwards read a paper on "The Cops and Nohennabans," which was very instructive. "New Methods to Meet New Conditions," was the subject which Mrs. Robert Conway so ably discussed. Mrs. Leisner's talk on "The Egyptian Church," also brought new lights on an interesting subject. "Home Mission Study," the new book which the society is to study this year, was first discussed by Mrs. Harry Kramer. She read a delightful paper on the subject which was followed by a discussion in which she asked questions, bringing new angles on the question.

B. Y. C. D.

Judging from the enthusiastic meeting of the B. Y. C. D. class Tuesday evening, the class has started out the new year to fulfill the motto suggested by the name, which is the "Best You Can Do." About twenty-two young men and women gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pearsey last evening to discuss their plans and enjoy an informal evening together. Miss Grace Smith presided over the business session, during which it was decided to have a Penny Supper for the members of the class on Valentine Day. Miss Mary McTussey, the secretary, called the roll. Games completed this evening of profit and merriment, at the close of which delicious refreshments were served by the host and hostess. Mrs. S. G. Huntington is the efficient teacher of the class.

LEAP YEAR PARTY

Red and white, the colors of the Always Present class, were effectively used to transform the basement of the Christian church into a beautiful setting for the leap year party given there last evening. Long graceful strands of red and white crepe paper, stretched from the corners of the room, were used in such profusion that the ceiling could scarcely be seen. A huge bouquet of red flowers, was caught in the center of the draped strands of paper. In this pretty atmosphere the merry crowd of Leap Year girls and their gay young escorts gathered to enjoy the party planned by the hostesses, who were the girls of the Always Present class. The invitations were issued as follows; each girl was to invite a boy friend and one other couple, and as a result seventy-five or more accepted the invitations, "Drop-the-handkerchief," "Clap-in," and "Wink-em" were among the fascinating games that furnished amusement during the busy evening. Jollity and informality alone made the evening one of rare pleasure and one that will long be remembered. Ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses near the close of the happy event.

The girls giving the party were the Misses Wilma Beaver, president of the class, Ruth Champion, Marie Clark, Stella Gibson, Edna Gibson, Gertrude Wilkinson, Gladys Chadwick, Rena Mahin, Leota Mull, Gladys Bebout, Loretta Talkington, Esther Foster, Rena Offut, Marie Turner, Ruth Higgins, Lavern Davis, and Hazel Smalley.

Amusements

The Princess will show a three act drama "A Bit of Lace," for the program tonight. Edna Mayo and Darwin Karr are featured and it is said to be a great human interest story, full of action and dramatic situations. The story will appeal to all. Tomorrow night the feature production, "The Cave Man" will be shown. The story was written by Gelett Burgess and originally produced in Providence, Rhode Island, as a legitimate comedy-drama with Robert Edson in the portrayal of the leading character. "The Cave Man" is a story of the evolution of a man, inspired in one of its leaders by the folly and superficiality of society and details graphically, how a man, picked haphazard from the submerged tenth is made to grow and expand into a valuable member of worth while society by the careful nursing of a spark implanted in the brain of a coal heaver. The picture is in five parts and features Robert Edson, Fay Wallace, Lillian Burns and George de Beck.

The Gem offers a two reel drama, "The Connecting Link" for the first picture tonight. Sherman Blinbridge and Edythe Sterling are featured. It pictures the evils wrought by a dishonest mining man. Some very thrilling scenes are enacted. The other picture on the program is a comedy entitled "Slippery Slim." Victor Potel is featured. Tomorrow night the two reel society drama, "Under a Shadow" will be shown.

IT'S ALL SETTLED

There is no question about spring having been here, even though it will be driven away by the cold wave promised tonight. The other day James Dill opened his sugar camp and got a free flow of sugar water. Today Mrs. James Lock saw a robin on the front lawn in front of her home.

"It's out here eating its breakfast," said Mrs. Lock over the telephone. "It is our first spring visitor."

FOR BRONCHITIS, SEVERE COUGHS, COLDS AND WHOOPING COUGH

Make the Best Medicine at Home—128 Teaspoonful for 50 Cents.

Money spent for the old style, ready-made medicine usually sold in bottles holding only 2 to 2½ ounces (16 to 20 teaspoonfuls) is largely wasted, because most of them are composed principally of sugar and water. Yet you have to pay the same price as if it were all medicine. Stop wasting this money. You can make a better remedy for bronchial affections, at home at one-fifth the cost. Merely go to Fox Bros. Drug Store and ask for 2 ounces (50¢ worth) of Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant, which they guarantee will give perfect satisfaction or money will be refunded. Mix this with one pint of boiling water, which makes a full pint (128 teaspoonful). This new, simple, pleasant remedy is guaranteed to relieve the worst cough or cold, Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough. One bottle will make enough home-made medicine to probably last a whole family the entire winter. Children like it, it is so pleasant to take. It is unlike any other medicine and positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. Keep it on hand in case of emergency and stop each cough before it gets a firm hold. The above drug is in this city, will return the money just the same as is done with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador in every single case where it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not the best remedy ever used. Absolutely no risk is run in buying his remedy—under this positive guarantee.

ized the necessity of keeping people tilling the soil. George Washington saw the need in his day and in his last message to congress called for a department of agriculture.

"There are some things that can be done. We are just coming to the time when farmers are realizing their responsibility. If the young men do not have the opportunity on the farm that they can find in town, they will go to town. We want to demonstrate that the farm will pay. Commercial enterprises have been built up and have shown young men the dollar, and they have flocked to the city. The young man on the farm hears of the exceptional cases where one has succeeded in the city and does not hear of the large per cent of failures. But a very small per cent that goes to the city is better than on the farm. Most of them are worse off.

"One of the greatest problems that farmers have now is that of labor. We can't solve it with the foreigner because there are not going to be any of them left, but we must solve it with the young men of our country. We have to have qualified labor and if we are going to accomplish as farmers what is mapped out for us, we need the boys that are growing up on the farm.

"We must show the boy he can make as much on the farm as in town and make life attractive to him. We must also keep the girls in the country for without them the boys will not stay."

Professor Christie entered into a discussion of ways and means to make life attractive on the farm for the young people. He spoke of the part of the church in rural communities as a leader of the social and spiritual life. The speaker dwelt for a moment, in closing, on another phase of farm life that is important in connection with the problem of keeping young people on the farm.

"A farmer is entitled to retire after twenty or thirty years of service on the farm," he declared, "but when he retires, he shouldn't move to town. He should retire on the farm. There is no place for him in town; he has nothing in common with the people of the town; he has nothing to do and does not fit in. He is against sidewalks and other public improvements and when the farm is not good enough for father and mother, it is not good enough for John and Mary and they soon follow to town. The father who retires in town leaves his son when that boy needs the benefit of his rich experience on the farm."

Toastmaster Trabue expressed the opinion that the bad conditions of the roads had kept many farmers away from the banquet and he said the regret of the banqueters because more were not present was no greater than that of those who were unable to attend.

"The aim of education," said County Superintendent C. M. George, discussing the topic, "Teaching Agriculture in the Public Schools," is to teach children to think clearly, always was and always will be, but the present method is different."

The county superintendent spoke briefly of the strides that had been made in vocational education in the last few years and said the great problem with respect to it was to get the children to demonstrate what they have learned.

Dr. F. G. Hackleman, responding to the toast, "The Country Doctor," said that familiar character was one of "God's noblemen." Dr. Hackleman said the country doctor gave freely of his time and made many sacrifices when he was seldom repaid.

"He takes the lead in public enterprises that affect the health of the community and thereby reduces his revenue," said the doctor.

The Rev. Moody Edwards of New Salem, pastor of the Little Flatrock Christian church, said the problem of the country was the reservoir for the city and that if a pure city life was wanted for the future, it should be founded in the country life today.

"It is the future where the country church will make itself felt," declared the minister. "We were expecting immediate results and were disappointed, but we are just now beginning to realize them." He called attention to the fact that the problem was one of such grave import that President Wilson recently went to Columbus, O., to address a convention of the Churches of Christ on the relation of the country church to the community.

"The church," he continued, "is the only institution that ministers to the social and spiritual needs of the community. The destructive side of the church, if it preserves itself, must be overcome. Conservatism of the farmers is a factor in the destructive side. The farmer is conservative from circumstances and not by nature, because he has not witnessed so keenly the progress as the man of the city. The church must destroy this sense of conservatism."

"The church must meet another problem—the sense of individualism. The church that strangles efforts at advancement is not meeting this problem. The sense of individualism is another that must be done away with. The great problem is getting the church to realize that it is alive and that it is the life of the community."

The Rev. Mr. Edwards also said the problem also had its constructive side with many phases.

George Campbell injected lots of fun into the banquet in his toast on "The Farmer and the Law." He said that the farmer, the substantial basis of all wealth and prosperity, stands on one side of the proposition and the law on the other.

"Look at the opportunities for trouble in the life of the farmer—the partition fence, the division road and the community ditch," he declared. "When he gets into trouble, the farmer goes to the law through his lawyer. The lawyer writes his deeds, his mortgages, his contracts, his will—and then breaks them. He is an organizer as well as a disorganizer. It may seem that the lawyer has the best of it, but it has to be that way to make things right."

"As Brother Edwards said," continued the speaker, "the spirit of conservatism permeates their atmosphere. They have permitted themselves to be put to sleep by the fellow at the other end of the line. What they need is organization. Organize—and get the lawyers to do it," was his parting injunction, which was greeted with laughter and applause.

FILMS ARE SHOWN FOR FIRST TIME

Persons at Farmers Banquet Have Opportunity to See Educational Pictures at School

PLANS FOR SHOWING THEM

Those who attended the farmers banquet at the Graham Annex gymnasium last night had first opportunity ever afforded a Rushville audience to view a sample of moving pictures the school will have to offer since its new motion picture machine has been installed in the auditorium. After the banquet and toasts, the crowd went to the auditorium where two educational reels were shown.

Superintendent J. H. Scholl said last night that it had been found that twenty films could be obtained from the extension department of Indiana university and that there were many other sources from which to get films at no other expense than express charges. The Chicago Record-Herald will furnish one educational film together with a comic, each month and a number of state universities have film services for public schools.

Arrangements are to be made to cover the skylights in the auditorium so that the pictures may be shown to the school children in the afternoon. Some plan will be devised to obtain some revenue from the pictures to pay incidental expenses.

Another Wonderful Recovery From Kidney Trouble

For nearly nine years I was a great sufferer from what my doctors said was kidney trouble and my blood was out of order; enduring all that time excruciating pain in my back and across my bowels. I was drawn down so that I could only walk with my hands on my knees. My doctor said he could do nothing for me. I tried many kinds of medicine, but all to no avail. A friend told me about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and as I had tried everything else that I heard of, I bought a bottle of Swamp-Root and it did wonders for me. I prize it higher than any other medicine and I shall recommend it to my friends. I wish to add right here that after using Swamp-Root for two months I began to straighten up and am now sound and well, and feel like I might live a long time yet to tell what your medicine has done for me.

All Highest Prize Butter De Laval Made
THE most important butter scoring contests take place at the Annual Convention of the National Buttermakers' Association, held in recent years in conjunction with the National Dairy Show in Chicago. When you use a De Laval Separator you not only get more cream but better cream as well

THE best evidence of this is that during the last twenty-five years butter made from De Laval separated cream has invariably scored the highest at all important contests and state fairs. Practically all the cream entered in the International Milk and Cream Show held in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition, was separated by De Laval, and every first prize, and most all the other prizes, were won by De Laval separated cream.

These facts are simply further proof of De Laval supremacy in everything that goes to make a good cream separator. Don't buy any separator until you give us an opportunity to let you see and try a De Laval. We will be glad to send one out to your farm on trial any time you say. Just phone, send a post card, or call and we will be glad to give you all the information you wish.

Sooner or later you will buy a DE LAVAL

obtaining the jury to try the case. A delay was also occasioned in securing a court stenographer. Mrs. Anna Sullivan Dragoon finally consented to act. One of the peculiar things noticed in securing a jury was the number of men interested in the case that made them ineligible for jury service. In the original panel three men were found who had signed the remonstrance against the road; one that had signed the original petition; one that was related to William A. Alexander and one of the original viewers of the road was also picked up. None of these men were permitted to sit on the jury.

It was after eleven o'clock this morning before the jury was selected and then the opening statements made. Frank J. Hall stated the case for the plaintiff, William A. Alexander and was followed by John H. Kiplinger for the defendants, William Harton, et al. The petitioners are represented by Hall and Campbell, John A. Tisworth and J. Q. Thomas and the remonstrators, that faction headed by William Harton, are represented by Kiplinger and Smith.

The jury finally selected to try the case is composed of the following: Frank, Hudson, George Hardesty, Arthur George, Edgar Morris, Thomas Lower, H. Lee Wilson, D. C. Buell, Peter Kraus, James L. Hays, Jabez Winship, Walter Maple, and Alva Swain.

THREW DISHES AT SPOUSE

Catherine Sampson Also Got Drunk, Divorce Complaint Said

Clem Sampson today filed suit for divorce from Catherine Sampson, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. The complaint states that they were married at Paris, Ill., on August 22, 1913 and separated Jan. 27. He states that he was compelled to leave her because he could no longer stand the cruel treatment. The complaint alleges that she frequently got drunk and on at least one occasion broke up the dishes and threw them at him. Sampson states that when it was impossible for her to buy whiskey in Rushville she would go to Connersville after it, and alleges that she has gone over there as often as four times a month. He also alleges that she mistreated her child, a daughter by a former husband.

PECULIAR FACTS ABOUT WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 27.—Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh, unlike many of his brother ministers, loves to smoke tobacco. He puffs rapidly and (when circumstances permit) constantly, at a cigar.

Stomach Troubles Quickly Cured

People go on suffering from little stomach troubles for years, and imagine they have a serious disease. They over-eat, or over-drink and force on the stomach a lot of extra work, but they never think that the stomach needs extra help to do the extra work.

If these people would take Tono-line Tablets regularly they would be a great big help to the stomach in its strain of over-work. No matter what you eat or drink Tono-line tabs sweeten your sour stomach and stop gas belching in five minutes. The heaviness disappears, and the stomach is greatly aided in its work of digestion.

TONOLINE TABLETS

Not only promptly relieves

all distress, but if taken regularly will absolutely cure indigestion by building up the flabby, overworked walls of the stomach and make them strong enough to digest the most hearty meal. For sale by

BUSINESS IS BASED ON CONFIDENCE

A Theory Put Into Practice by Well Known Business Man

J. C. BRADY

"A druggist has many opportunities to make lasting friends of his customers," said Mr. J. C. Brady, popular Rexall Pharmacist of Fall River, Mass. "The very nature of his business draws their confidence for little helpful suggestions on the matter of health. Many people have thanked me for recommending Rexall Orderlies as the best relief for constipation and its resultant ills. Put up in dainty candy tablet form, they are pleasant to the taste and make an ideal laxative for the home—for men, women and children alike."

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative. Trial size, 10 cents.

STORIES FROM WAR FRONT

By CARL W. ACKERMAN (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, Dec. 19.—(By Mail) Out hunting today with the American Military Attache in Berlin, Colonel Kuhns, Ambassador Gerard killed two small deer with one shot. The Colonel on the other hand, fired two shots without hitting a deer!

Did Gerard's friends not know that he was an expert-crack-never-miss-a-nail rifleman, they would think this an accident, but this is the second time this winter that Gerard killed two deer with one shot! Today it happened thus:

Gerard and the Colonel went out to the Ambassador's game preserve near Berlin. Two small deer appeared. Gerard fired at one. The bullet went through its heart, struck a rib, glanced out the side and went through the second deer! More game appeared, and the officer took a shot and another shot, but the deer disappeared.

On their way home Gerard decided he would like to bag a duck for dinner because Mrs. Gerard's mother is visiting here and likes duck. It was dark. The Ambassador spotted one, fired and bagged it. But when he got it home it was too old to eat.

"That's what I get for shooting ducks at night," remarked Gerard smilingly when he reached the Embassy.

HUDSON SUPER-SIX

(Patented December 28, 1915)

76 Horse Power

The Super-Six—a Hudson invention—has come to claim the sovereign place in motors. With six little cylinders it develops 76-h. p. That's 80% more than other like-size Sixes. It has broken all records in quick acceleration. In official test, a stock car has made 72 3/4 miles in an hour. The marvel is, we attain this result with six small cylinders. They were made to yield nearly double power—to outdo Eights and Twelves. And they've done that by ending vibration. So the Super-Six is utterly quiet. The car seems to move by magic. It has amazing flexibility. And it has, in addition, this wealth of reserve power.

The Seven Passenger Phaeton Costs $1375. Touring Sedan $1900
